NCC – Trekking at Dalma Range

Introduction: 8/37 BN NCC ARKA JAIN University, a renowned and disciplined organization, has consistently demonstrated dedication and commitment to national interests. One of the many activities organized by the university is the Trekking Expedition, which plays a crucial role in fostering discipline, teamwork, and physical endurance among the cadets.

Participants: The trekking camp, held recently, saw active participation from 53 cadets, comprising 35 Senior Division (SD) and 18 Senior Wing (SW) cadets. The team also included 1 Associate NCC Officer (ANO), 1 Ex-Serviceman (ESM), and 1 Girl Cadet Attendant (GCA).

Trek Route: The trekking expedition covered a challenging route from Dalma Gate to the Top Mountain. The cadets embarked on a journey spanning approximately 38 to 40 kilometres in a single day, navigating through the scenic yet demanding terrains of the Dalma Range.

Activities: Throughout the expedition, the cadets engaged in various activities aimed at enhancing their physical fitness, teamwork, and survival skills. The trek provided a unique opportunity for the cadets to connect with nature, fostering a sense of environmental consciousness.

Highlights of the Expedition: Discipline and Responsibility: The cadets demonstrated exemplary discipline and responsibility, adhering to the guidelines set by the organization. This reflected the values instilled by the university.

Team Building: Trekking requires effective teamwork, and the cadets excelled in collaborating to overcome challenges. The experience strengthened the bonds among the participants.

Physical Endurance: Walking a challenging distance of 38 to 40 kilometers in a day showcased the cadets' physical stamina and endurance. The rigorous trek tested their limits and encouraged a spirit of resilience.

Enjoyment and Refreshment: Despite the demanding nature of the trek, the cadets thoroughly enjoyed the experience. At the end of the event, they engaged in refreshing activities, fostering a positive and rejuvenated atmosphere.

Conclusion: The NCC Trekking Expedition at Dalma Range was a resounding success, showcasing the commitment and enthusiasm of the 8/37 BN NCC ARKA JAIN University. The event not only provided a platform for physical and mental challenges but also instilled a sense of patriotism and camaraderie among the participating cadets. The university continues to uphold its reputation as a responsible and disciplined organization, contributing to the holistic development of its cadets.
