OBJECTIVE: To give official farewell to the senior students of batch 2021. To train students to conduct event and learn event management.

The Department of Journalism and Mass Communication organized an event to give farewell to the students of the department on 23rd April 2024. The students of the batch 2021 of the department celebrated their last day in the university during their official farewell.

The program was hosted by the students from the department of Journalism and Mass Communication. The program started with the welcoming of the dignitaries, dean, head of the departments, faculty members and the students.

Chairman of Arka Jain University, Professor Dr. S. S. Razi, Registrar and Director Dr. Amit Kumar Shrivastav, Chief Finance and Accounts Officer Mrs. Richa Garg, Dean-Student Welfare Professor Dr. Angad Tiwari and Joint Registrar Dr. Jasbir Singh Dhanjal, deans and Heads of Departments and faculty members of various departments were present during the event and wished the students for their better future. The head of journalism and mass communication department Dr. Rahul Amin wished all the passing out students and said "To achieve success in life, never follow shortcuts but follow the right path. We are always there to guide you for your better future. He also said even if you are leaving the university after the completion of your course but you all will always remain the part of this university".

The farewell event was hosted by Akanksha, Shaima Parween, Priya Dutta, and Sneha Pareek. The farewell program included ramp walk, singing, mimicry, games along with the competitive event. Mister and Miss Rukhsat was awarded to Sanjana Kumari and Aman Kumar, Mister and Miss all rounder was awarded to Shubham Kumar Murmu and Navneet, Kaur. Mister and Miss Personality were awarded to Md. Shahaab Aftab and Shreya Banerjee. The event was well organized by the students. Students from senior's batch shared the overall experience of university life and wished their juniors all the best for their future.

OUTCOME: Students learnt and got training to organize event and practice event management by organizing Rukhsat 2024, a farewell event.
