DESIGN HIVE-THE IN-HOUSE FASHION BRAND

The goal of branding is to make a connection between the character of an object and its branded form or appearance. The Department of Fashion Design established its in-house brand—Design Hive to give Design students, faculties and local artisans a platform to showcase their creative work.

There have been exhibitions of various products at the University and city level which has been appreciated with high note. The products are made from low cost, everyday materials, usually scraps, recycled and repurposed to advocate sustainability and circular fashion. The products are manufactured with an emphasis on eco-friendly materials, careful planning, ethical business practises, and the appreciation of creativity.

CULTURAL AND SPORTS ACTIVITIES

Activities that advance or improve the public's understanding of history or society are referred to as cultural activities. It is the development and improvement of a person's mind, interests, tastes, and talents because they allow pupils to explore outside of the classroom. Cultural events have traditionally been a source of great excitement among students. They are motivated by the efforts of intellectuals, professionals, and artists who act as role models for them.

Participating in sports develops a person's patience, communication, leadership, punctuality, accountability, teamwork, trust, and other interpersonal skills that help one not just win a particular sporting tournament but also develop and succeed in other areas of one's life. In higher education, sports are crucial in helping young people build a well-rounded personality that includes their body, mind, and spirit. As a result, university students who actively participate in competitive sports foster a sense of positive competition in their daily lives.

Keeping this in view, ARKA JAIN University fosters the team spirit through sports conducted by the Sports Committee of the University. The students are given a wider platform to play different outdoor and indoor games and they are sent to other sports meet also organized by various educational institutions across the country. AJU finds it essential that university students from across the nation be brought together on a "National Platform" through the media of sports and physical activities in order to direct young people's energy in a positive direction as part of the process of establishing a nation.

AJU hosts RUNBHOOI, an intra-university sports extravaganza as an annual sports meet to witness outstanding performances and wide participations across the streams.

The students of AJU participated in Khelotsav, a mega sports meet organized by Central University of Jharkhand, Ranchi and performed well by bagging over-all runners-up title. The players excelled in basketball and football winning Gold and in cricket they secured the second position. In Table tennis AJU was declared second in the category of women.

MAJOR CULTURAL EVENTS

Aagaaz (Annual Cultural Fest)

It is indeed a fact that collective, and physical gatherings make a difference. There is profound symbolic value in the opportunity to experience something together as communities. Cultural events in educational campus offer such a platform by condensing the exposure to cultural activities over a specific time and place.

AJU organizes Aagaaz as the annual cultural fest to rejuvenate the students and create an ethos of collective effort and cultural interaction.

Aarambh (Induction & Orientation Programme)

Student Induction Programme engages with the new students as soon as they come into the institution; before regular classes start. At the start of the induction, the incumbents learn about the institutional policies, processes, practices, culture and values, and their mentor groups are formed. The induction programme introduces the students to the programme of study and the facilities available to them. The objective is to prepare students for their course of study and ensure a smooth transition into university life.

There are singing, dance and theatrical performances by the existing students during the entire programme and it creates an environment of interactions.

Holi Invasion

The Indian festival of Holi is in the pleasure of the arrival of spring, love, and new life. While some families undertake religious rituals, for many, Holi is just a time for celebration. It's a vibrant festival with singing, dancing, and the flinging of coloured water and powder paint. The "festival of colours" is a different name for Holi.

Holi, also known as the festival of colour, is a joyous celebration during which family and friends splash one other with coloured water and daub coloured powders on each other.

AJU celebrates Holi with the title 'Holi Invasion' that signifies the victory of good over evil, the arrival of spring, end of winter, and for many a festive day to meet others, play and laugh, forget and forgive, and repair broken relationships, and is also celebrated as a thanks giving for a good harvest. It gives a message of unity and trust.

Roshni

In India Diwali is a five-day long celebration, with the third day serving as the primary event. Most people pray to Ganesh, the god of luck and wisdom for the upcoming year, and Lakshmi, the goddess of riches, during Diwali night. Although Diwali marks various historical occurrences and tales for each of the four major world religions—Hinduism, Jainism, Sikhism, and Buddhism—it nonetheless symbolizes the triumph of light over darkness, knowledge over ignorance, and good over evil.

AJU celebrates Diwali by the name 'Roshni' in which a number of cultural performances are executed by the students and staffs.

Annual Expedition @ AJU Carvaan

Learning that is connected to exploration and journey-based experiences or expeditions, is known as expeditionary education. It is frequently used interchangeably with adventure education, outdoor education, environmental education, or experiential education.

AJU takes the students to different places of historical, cultural and mythological importance in the form of educational tour-Carvaan, as educational excursions are learning opportunities that let students put their teachings into practice in the real world. These vacations frequently serve as the student's most treasured memories. On an educational excursion, students' brains are relaxed, which increases their likelihood of learning.
