OBJECTIVE: The objective of conducting Rath Yatra is to celebrate and honour Lord Jagannath's divine journey, enriching participants spiritually. These events preserve and promote cultural traditions, foster community unity and inclusivity, and enhance public awareness of the festival's significance.

DETAILS: The Rath Yatra is a major Hindu festival celebrating Lord Jagannath's annual journey from His temple to His garden, symbolizing divine travel and fostering communal devotion. Renowned for its inclusivity, it allows people from diverse backgrounds to participate and reflect on spiritual unity. The festival's grand chariot procession and traditional rituals have deep cultural roots in Odisha and significantly impact local tourism and the economy. Its significance lies in both its religious and social aspects, offering spiritual fulfilment and promoting cultural heritage. On this auspicious occasion, the School of Pharmacy at ARKA JAIN University celebrated the "Return of Rath Yatra 2024," marking Lord Jagannath's return from his garden to his temple. Held with great enthusiasm on 15th July 2024, the event commenced at 12:00 PM and was honoured by the presence of esteemed dignitaries, including Mr. Dharmendra Singh, EC Member, Pharmacy Council of India; Dr. Amit Srivastava, Registrar; Dr. Jasbir Singh Dhanjal, Joint Registrar; Dr. Angad Tiwari, DSW; Dr. Arvind Pandey, Director IQAC; and Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo, Dean, School of Health and Allied Sciences. The program began with a Prathana Session, followed by the Samulik Gita Patha, where students from various semesters recited the Bhagavad Gita, enhancing the event's spiritual ambiance. It continued with Bhajan Supravatam, a series of devotional hymns sung to honour Lord Jagannath. The entire pooja was meticulously conducted by Mr. Pravas Ranjan Dash, Faculty of the School of Pharmacy. Upon completion of the pooja, Mahaprasadam Seva was held, offering a variety of traditional Odia dishes, including rice, Dalma (a traditional lentil and vegetable stew), fries, and Kheer (sweet rice pudding). The prasadam was a highlight, allowing everyone to partake in Rath Yatra traditions. The occasion was highly praised by all attending dignitaries. The event's success was attributed to the diligent coordination and efforts of Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo and the staff of the School of Pharmacy, including Mr. Pravas Ranjan Dash, Mr. Ashutosha, Mr. Hiranya, Mr. Rashmi, Ms. Priyabati, Ms. Purnima, Ms. Priyanshu, Ms. Nisha, Ms. Ankita, Ms. Priyam, Ms. Mansi, and Ms. Alka. Their dedication ensured the smooth execution of the event and contributed to its memorable nature.

OUTCOMES: The "Return of Rath Yatra" at ARKA JAIN University was a resounding success, celebrated with devotion and joy. The event not only highlighted the rich cultural traditions associated with Lord Jagannath but also fostered a sense of community and spiritual enrichment among the participants.
