AWARENESS SESSION ON ANTI-RAGGING

Date of Event	14th August 2024
Name of the Event	Anti-Ragging
Type of the Event	Awareness Session on Anti-Ragging
Conducted by	Department of Management (BBA), School of Commerce and Management
No. Of Participant	56

Objective: The primary objective of the Anti-Ragging Awareness Event was to creatively and effectively communicate the importance of a ragging-free environment to the third and fifth semester students. The event aimed to raise awareness about the harmful effects of ragging and to promote a culture of respect and camaraderie among students.

Details: The event featured a series of videos specifically designed to be engaging and impactful, using humor, drama, and real-life scenarios to highlight the serious consequences of ragging. The videos were shown in F Block to the third and fifth semester students. The content portrayed the emotional and psychological impact of ragging on new students, as well as the legal and disciplinary actions that can result from such behavior. The videos emphasized the importance of creating a welcoming and inclusive atmosphere on campus, where all students can thrive without fear of harassment or intimidation.

Outcomes: The Anti-Ragging Awareness Event was highly successful in delivering its message to the third and fifth semester students. The interactive and relatable format of the videos helped to engage the audience and make the message of anti-ragging more memorable. Students were encouraged to stand against ragging and to support their peers in fostering a safe and positive campus environment.
