NUKKAD NATAK ON ANTI-RAGGING

Date of Event	13th August 2024
Name of the Event	Anti-Ragging
Type of the Event	Nukkad Natak
Conducted by	Department of Commerce (B.COM(H), School of Commerce and Management
No. Of Participant	42

Objective:

The primary objective of the Anti-Ragging Nukkad Natak was to creatively and effectively communicate the importance of a ragging-free environment to first-year students. The street play aimed to raise awareness about the harmful effects of ragging and to promote a culture of respect and camaraderie among students.

Details:

The event featured a Nukkad Natak, a form of street theatre, performed by senior students from the Department of Management. The play was designed to be engaging and impactful, using humor, drama, and real-life scenarios to highlight the serious consequences of ragging. The performance took place in C Block, where a large number of first-year students gathered to watch. The Nukkad Natak portrayed the emotional and psychological impact of ragging on new students, as well as the legal and disciplinary actions that can result from such behavior. The actors emphasized the importance of creating a welcoming and inclusive atmosphere on campus, where all students can thrive without fear of harassment or intimidation.

Outcomes:

The Nukkad Natak was highly successful in delivering its message to the first-year students. The interactive and relatable format of the street play helped to engage the audience and make the message of anti-ragging more memorable. Students were encouraged to stand against ragging and to support their peers in fostering a safe and positive campus environment. The event concluded with a pledge by all attendees to uphold the values of respect and dignity within the university.
