OBJECTIVE: The objective of conducting such a session is to empower faculty members with the tools, knowledge, and motivation needed to enhance their quality performance, foster innovation, and contribute effectively to the academic mission of the institution.

DETAILS: On 19th of March 2024, Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo, the Dean of the School of Health and Allied Sciences at ARKA JAIN University, conducted an insightful session on QbD, titled "A Session to Scale Up Your Quality Performance." The session aimed at enhancing the quality performance of the faculty members within the Department of Health and Allied Sciences. Attended by all faculty members, it provided a platform for interactive discourse on various aspects of research methodology, teaching pedagogy, participative skills, and collaboration. The session commenced with Dr. Sahoo elaborating on the significance of QbD in academia, emphasizing its role in elevating quality standards. Through an interactive approach, Dr. Sahoo engaged the faculty members in discussions regarding innovative research methodologies and the adoption of new teaching and learning pedagogies. He stressed the importance of incorporating contemporary methods to enhance the quality of education imparted to students. Dr. Sahoo highlighted the importance of robust research methodologies in producing high-quality outcomes. He encouraged faculty members to explore diverse research approaches and methodologies to address contemporary challenges effectively. The session delved into the significance of implementing innovative teaching techniques to promote active learning among students. Dr. Sahoo emphasized the need for dynamic teaching strategies to cater to diverse learning styles and enhance student engagement. He stressed the importance of effective communication, teamwork, and mutual respect in achieving collective goals. The session underscored the value of collaborative endeavors in fostering academic excellence. Faculty members were encouraged to initiate and participate in collaborative research projects, interdisciplinary activities, and knowledge-sharing initiatives to enrich the academic environment. In conclusion, the session was a resounding success, leaving a positive impact on the faculty members of the School of Health and Allied Sciences at ARKA JAIN University.

OUTCOMES: The session conducted by Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo proved to be highly informative and insightful, providing faculty members with valuable insights into enhancing their quality performance. It served as a platform for fruitful discussions and knowledge exchange, empowering faculty members to embrace innovative approaches in their respective domains.
