PAPER BAG MAKING EVENT

Date of Event	25.04.2024
Name of the Event	Paper Bag Making
Type of the Event	Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability (1.3.1)
Conducted by	BA Fashion Design (H)
No. of Participants	39

OBJECTIVES:

The paper bag making workshop was held on Earth Day (25.04.2024) at Fashion Design Department. The event aimed to raise awareness about the harmful effects of plastic pollution and promote sustainable alternatives such as paper bags. Attendees included 39 participants from the Different department students of Arka Jain University.

ABOUT THE EVENT:

The workshop began with a brief presentation by Mrs. Charu Wadhwa head of centre for soft skill development, on the environment impact of plastic pollution. Facts and statistics were shared to highlight the importance of reducing single use plastic consumption.

Ms. Manisha Singh, faculty of Fashion design Department demonstrated the step-by-step process of making paper bags from old newspaper. Attendees were shown how to measure, fold, and glue the paper to create sturdy and reusable bags.

Participants were provided with all the necessary materials, including newspaper, scissors, rulers, ribbon, pencils, markers, and stickers. They eagerly engaged in the hands-on activity, making their own paper bags with guidance from the facilitators.

A creativity corner was set up with various decorating materials such as markers, folded paper fan, and stickers. Participants personalized their paper bags with colorful designs and inspiring messages

The Guest of Honour for the event was Dr. Prof. S.S.Razi (Ex vice chancellor) Dr. Angad Tiwari, DSW and Director Campus.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOME):

- More than 200 paper bags were successfully crafted during the event.
- Participants gained practical skills in paper bag making and learned about the importance of environmental conservation.
- Awareness was raised about the detrimental effects of plastic pollution, inspiring attendees to adopt more sustainable habits
