OBJECTIVE: The primary goal of the awareness rally organized by the Department of Commerce (B.Com Hons.) at ARKA JAIN University in association with JEEVAN NGO was to raise awareness about the importance of mental health and reduce the stigma surrounding suicide.

DETAILS: The awareness rally on mental health, held on September 10, 2024, began at 8:30 AM, with participants marching from Gamharia Main Road to Lal Building in Gamharia. The event was organized by the Department of Commerce at ARKA JAIN University in collaboration with JEEVAN NGO, as part of the university's initiatives for World Suicide Prevention Day. The rally saw enthusiastic participation from students of BBA Semester V (2022-25) and B.Com (Hons) Semester I (2024-27). The rally aimed to engage both students and the local community in a dialogue about mental health, with a special emphasis on addressing the rising cases of suicide and the need to create supportive environments. Slogans on placards carried by the students highlighted various mental health issues and the importance of seeking help. Volunteers distributed handbills to residents, shop owners, and passers-by, reinforcing the message of mental well-being and providing information about available mental health resources. It managed to involve not only students but also the local community, fostering discussions on the importance of mental health. By distributing handbills and holding placards with thought-provoking slogans, the rally effectively reached a broader audience, promoting the theme for World Suicide Prevention Day, 2024-27: "Changing the narrative on suicide." The event encouraged more open conversations about mental health, thus reducing stigma and promoting community support for individuals experiencing mental health challenges.

OUTCOMES

The rally successfully fulfilled its objectives by creating awareness around mental health and the importance of suicide prevention. The local community was highly receptive, with many engaging in discussions about mental health. The distribution of handbills provided crucial information on where and how to seek help, while the slogans on placards sparked curiosity and reflection.

The event contributed to:

- Increased awareness about the importance of mental health in the local community.
- Reduced stigma around mental health discussions.
- Promoted help-seeking behaviour, especially regarding suicide prevention.
