CONSTITUTION DAY 2024

Date of Event	26.11.2024
Name of the Event	Constitution Day 2024 Theme: "Constitutional Values for a Sustainable Future."
Type of the Event	Ethical Values
Conducted by	School of Nursing, ARKA JAIN University
No. of Participants	30

OBJECTIVE: The main objectives of the Indian constitution include sovereignty, socialism, secularism, democracy, and republic.

DETAIL: On November 26th, 2024, the School of Nursing, ARKA JAIN University celebrated “Constitution Day 2024 (SAMVIDHAN DIVAS)” with great enthusiasm and dedication. The theme for this year’s celebration was “Constitutional Values for a Sustainable Future.” As part of the event, an Essay Writing Competition was organized at Block- Aryabhata; Room No- 131. The main aim was to engage students in a deeper understanding of the Constitution of India and its relevance to building a sustainable future.

The competition, held at 03:30 pm, saw active participation from the students of the School of Nursing. The event proved to be both educational and impactful, allowing around 30 students to reflect on the constitutional values that shape our nation and society. The winners of the competition were:

First place: Mr. Aditya, IVth Semester B. Sc. Nursing

Second place: Mr. Samarth Kumar, IVth Semester B. Sc. Nursing

Third place: Ms. Monali Paul, IVth Semester B. Sc. Nursing

The essay writing competition not only highlighted the importance of the Constitution but also provided students with the opportunity to express their thoughts on how its principles can contribute to creating a sustainable future. The event was a success in fostering awareness and appreciation for the foundational values that guide India as a democratic nation. The School of Nursing extends its congratulations to the winners and expresses gratitude to all participants for their contribution to this meaningful observance.

Overall, the event was a resounding success, thanks to the collaborative efforts of the School of Nursing, and enthusiastic participation from students.

Lastly I like to specially thank Principal, Prof. Ginu Anie Joseph and Vice Principal, Prof. Shilpa J, without their contribution this event would not be possible and thanks to faculty members who supported me in all my phases.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES): To highlights the ideals of the Constitution, such as democracy, secularism, and socialism and educates citizens about their rights and duties, and encourages active civic participation.

- CONSTITUTIONAL VALUES

Constitutional values are the fundamental principles that form the backbone of the nation's governance. It reflects the collective moral and ethical beliefs of a society and provides a structure for building an equitable nation. These values are not just abstract concepts; they have practical applications in shaping laws and governance systems.

In simple terms, constitutional values act as a moral ethics, guiding nations to take decisions that not only benefit their citizens today but also protect the interests of future generations.

- CONSTITUTIONAL VALUES FOR SUSTAINABLE FUTURE

Constitutional values in achieving a sustainable future focusing on justice, liberty, equality, fraternity, and the directive principles of nation's policy.

Justice ensures that resources are distributed fairly, marginalized communities are supported, and environmental harm is addressed.

Liberty guarantees individuals the freedom to innovate and contribute to sustainability while being mindful of their responsibilities to society and the environment.

Equality ensures that all people, regardless of their background, have access to resources and opportunities.

Fraternity encourages a sense of unity and cooperation.

Directive principles of state policy guide governments to focus on welfare, environmental conservation, and equitable development.
