VISIT TO OLD AGE HOME

Date of Event	7th August,2024
Name of Event	Visit to Old Age Home
Type of Event	Extension Activity (part of Induction Orientation)
Conducted by	School of Law, AJU
No. Of Participants	25

OBJECTIVE: Visiting an old age home serves various meaningful objectives, primarily centered on providing companionship and emotional support to elderly residents who may experience loneliness. The visit can involve offering volunteer services, such as assisting with daily activities, organizing recreational events, or even contributing to the residents' health and wellness through medical check-ups or counseling. Additionally, visitors may aim to donate essential items or funds, fostering a sense of community and care. Such visits also offer an opportunity to learn about the challenges faced by the elderly, raising awareness about their needs and the importance of elderly care. Whether the purpose is to bring joy, provide support, or assess and improve the living conditions, a visit to an old age home can significantly enhance the well-being and quality of life of the residents.

DETAILS: As an extension activity for new students, the visit to the old age home will be a carefully planned and meaningful event designed to introduce students to community service and foster empathy and social responsibility. Students will be divided into small groups and paired with residents to engage in conversations. This session is intended to break the ice and help both students and residents feel comfortable. Activities like storytelling, sharing personal experiences, or discussing hobbies and interests will be encouraged to create a warm and friendly atmosphere. Some students may also help organize and conduct recreational activities like music sessions, board games, or arts and crafts, providing entertainment and stimulation for the residents. The event was convened by the Dean Prof. (Dr.) Praveen K. Thakur and Program Coordinator Dr. Archita Dash and coordinated by Dr. Suman Cholli Asst. Professor, School of Law.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES): Significance of this session is to outcomes implementing a Participating in such visits helps instill a sense of social responsibility in students, encouraging them to contribute positively to society and understand the importance of caring for vulnerable populations. The visit can strengthen ties between the institution and the local community. It promotes the idea of intergenerational solidarity and fosters a culture of mutual support and understanding.
