SARHUL

Date of Event	12-04-24
Name of the Event	SARHUL
Type of the Event	Cultural Event: To celebrate Sarhul
Conducted by	Shahin Fatma & Dr. Pratima Srivastava
No. Of Participant	57

Objective: Sarhul is the main event of the Tribal population of Jharkhand. The literal meaning of Sarhul is worship of Sal tree. The tribes in Jharkhand believe that Sarhul is the abode of goddess Sarna, who protect the village from all the natural calamities and disasters. The objective of the event is to make students aware about rich Tribal heritage and culture of Jharkhand. Students will get the chance to participate in events like, Tribal Dance Performance, Tribal Fashion show, Pot/Surahi Painting competition.

Details of the Event: Department of Biotechnology and Department of English organised the event to celebrate the festival of Sarhul. The chief guest of the event were Sri Ram Murmu, (Mukhiya Yashpur Panchayat) and Mrs. Suchitra Sardar (Mukhiya Kowali Panchayat). The event started with the lamp lightening and welcoming the guest. The event was graced by the presence of Dr. Angad Tiwari (Dean Student Welfare) and Dr. S.S. Razi (Chairperson, Board of Management AJU). The welcome speech was given by Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahu (Dean, School of Health and Allied Science, AJU). The event included Tribal dance performance by the students of B.Sc. Biotechnology and B.Sc. Nursing. Fashion show was presented by the students to showcase the rich tribal culture of Jharkhand. Pot Painting/Surahi Painting competition was organised for the students to present their creativity. The Competition was judged by Mrs. Manisha Singh (Faculty, Department of Fashion Design).

Outcome: Sarhul presents the heritage of Jharkhand and respect for Mother Nature. Students learned about the rich culture of Jharkhand and importance of Tribal culture in our state. Participants of the various events got the opportunity to showcase their talent. All the students were provided with Participation certificate.
