FIELD VISIT TO RED CROSS SOCIETY

Date of Event	23.04.2024
Name of the Event	Field visit to Red Cross Society
Type of the Event	Life Skills Development
Conducted by	School of Nursing
No. of Participants	12 members

OBJECTIVE: To provide relief in times of disasters/emergencies and promote health & care of the vulnerable people and communities.

DETAILS: General Nursing and Midwifery (GNM) students from the School of Nursing, Arka Jain University, embarked on a field visit to the Red Cross Society in Jamshedpur on the 23rd April, 2024. Led by their instructors Mrs. Priyanka Tudu (Nursing Tutor) and Ms. Ritu Tigga (Nursing Tutor), the students were welcomed by Mr. Vijay Singh, the esteemed in-charge of the Red Cross Society, whose commitment and efforts in orienting the Red Cross block were truly commendable.

Mr. Vijay Singh graciously guided the students through various essential facilities within the Red Cross Society, offering them a first-hand glimpse into the operational aspects of healthcare delivery. The visit encompassed crucial areas including the Outpatient Department (OPD), Vaccination Centre, Dialysis Unit, and Pathology Laboratory.

Throughout the visit, Mr. Vijay Singh shared valuable insights and knowledge, providing contextual understanding and practical exposure to the students. This interactive session allowed the students to grasp the intricate workings of each department, fostering a deeper appreciation for the multifaceted nature of healthcare provision.

The field visit proved to be highly effective for the students, offering them a unique opportunity to bridge the gap between theoretical learning and real-world application. Witnessing healthcare in action within the Red Cross Society not only enriched their academic experience but also instilled a sense of responsibility and compassion towards serving the community.

In conclusion, the field visit to the Red Cross Society was a resounding success, thanks to the invaluable guidance and support extended by Mr. Vijay Singh. It served as a pivotal moment in the educational journey of the GNM students, equipping them with the practical insights and skills necessary to excel in their future endeavours within the healthcare sector.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES): Promotion of health and life and service to the sick and the suffering. Gain knowledge regarding vocational training.
