Here are some key objectives:

- Civic Awareness
- Respect for Diversity
- Ethical Conduct
- Social Responsibility
- Legal Literacy
- Participation in Democratic Processes
- Conflict Resolution
- Critical Thinking
- Environmental Responsibility
- Promotion of Human Rights

DETAILS:

The Constitution Day was observed on 26-11-2024, by the Department of Computer Science and IT, ARKA Jain University, Jamshedpur. The Program was coordinated by Mr. Akash Kumar Bhagat, Assistant Professor, Dept of CS & IT and Dr. Arvind Kumar Pandey, Dean School of Engineering and IT.

The Session was initiated by Mr. Akash Kumar Bhagat on 26-11-2024. The Preamble of Indian Constitution was read by all student and Faculty coordinator Mr. Akash Kumar Bhagat. All the students had joined the oath taking ceremony also and learnt that constitutional obligations is required to build a society where individuals are not only aware of their rights but also understand the importance of fulfilling their responsibilities for the greater good. It contributes to the creation of a just, inclusive, and democratic society.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES): Sensitizing students and employees to constitutional obligations yields several positive outcomes that contribute to the development of responsible and engaged citizens. Here are some key outcomes:

- Civic Awareness: Promote an understanding of the constitution, its principles, and the rights and duties it outlines. This helps individuals become aware of their role in the democratic process.
- Informed Citizenship: Individuals become well-informed about their constitutional rights and duties, leading to a more knowledgeable and empowered citizenry.
- Active Participation: Sensitization encourages active participation in democratic processes such as voting, community engagement, and civic activities, strengthening the foundation of democracy.
- Ethical Decision-Making: Understanding constitutional values instills a sense of ethical conduct, fostering individuals who are more likely to make ethical decisions in their personal and professional lives.
- Respect for Diversity: Sensitization promotes respect for diversity by helping individuals appreciate the rich tapestry of cultures, religions, and perspectives within society.
- Social Responsibility: Individuals develop a heightened sense of social responsibility, actively contributing to the betterment of society and addressing community issues.
- Legal Literacy: Sensitized individuals are better equipped with legal literacy, enabling them to navigate legal systems, understand their rights, and fulfill their responsibilities within the framework of the law.
- Conflict Resolution Skills: Constitutional sensitization contributes to the development of effective conflict resolution skills, emphasizing dialogue, negotiation, and compromise over confrontation.
- Environmental Awareness: Individuals become more environmentally conscious, understanding the constitutional principles related to environmental protection and adopting sustainable practices.
- Human Rights Advocacy: Sensitization fosters a culture of human rights advocacy, empowering individuals to stand up for their rights and the rights of others.
- Civic Leadership: Sensitized students and employees are more likely to become future civic leaders who advocate for justice, equality, and the well-being of their communities.
- Prevention of Corruption and Abuse of Power: By understanding the constitutional principles that underpin the rule of law, individuals are better equipped to prevent corruption and the abuse of power within their spheres of influence.

- Global Citizenship: Sensitization promotes a sense of global citizenship, encouraging individuals to consider the global impact of their actions and contribute to international cooperation.
- Strengthened Rule of Law: A sensitized population contributes to a society that upholds the rule of law, fostering a culture where legal frameworks are respected and followed.
- Enhanced Critical Thinking: Individuals develop critical thinking skills, enabling them to analyse information, question authority, and resist misinformation that may undermine constitutional values.
- Improved Social Harmony: Sensitization fosters an environment of social harmony by promoting understanding, tolerance, and cooperation among diverse communities.

In essence, the outcomes of sensitization to constitutional obligations result in a more engaged, responsible, and ethical citizenry, laying the groundwork for a just and flourishing society.
