VALUE ADDED COURSE ON "CYBER LAW AND DATA PRIVACY"

Date of Event	01.11.2024
Name of the Event	Value Added Course On Cyber Law And Data Privacy
Type of the Event	Value Added
Conducted by	School of Law
No. Of Participants	12

OBJECTIVE: The Value-Added Course on "Cyber Law and Data Privacy" aims to equip participants with a comprehensive understanding of legal frameworks governing cyberspace, digital rights, and data protection. It provides insights into cybercrimes, legal remedies, privacy regulations, and compliance requirements in the digital era. The course enhances awareness of ethical online practices, regulatory policies, and the impact of cyber security laws on individuals and organizations. By bridging the gap between technology and law, it empowers learners to navigate the evolving digital landscape responsibly and securely.

DETAILS: The Value-Added Course in "Cyber Law and Data Privacy" has been designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of cyber regulations, privacy laws, and the impact of digital policies in the modern technological landscape. Developed and conducted by Sabrina Roy Chaudhary & Sameera Fatima, the course spans 30 hours and adopts a blended learning approach, integrating both on-campus and online modules. The first batch of this course commenced on November 2nd to December 6th, 2024 in the blended mode by both the trainers. The course is exclusively available to the university's students. The certification process mandates securing a minimum of 50% in the final assessment.

The course covers key aspects of cyber law and data privacy, including cyberspace regulations, digital rights, privacy concerns, and data protection laws. It includes discussions on Indian and global legal frameworks, compliance issues, and challenges in cyber security. Through interactive sessions, participants gain practical insights, and successful completion earns them a certificate from ARKA JAIN University, Jharkhand.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES): The course equips participants with a strong understanding of cyber law, digital rights, and data privacy regulations. Key outcomes include enhanced knowledge of cyber threats, legal frameworks, and data protection laws, both in India and globally. Students develop critical skills in analysing cyber security challenges, ensuring compliance, and addressing privacy concerns. Successful completion enables participants to navigate the digital legal landscape effectively and apply cyber security principles in real-world scenarios.
