OBJECTIVE:

In Observance of Janjatiya Gourav Varsh Plantation Drive in association with Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Cell and NSS. This event aimed to honor the tribal heritage of India while promoting environmental sustainability and community engagement. It focuses on celebrating the contributions of tribal communities to India's history and culture. Raise awareness about the importance of afforestation and environmental conservation. Encourage active participation of students and community members in sustainable initiatives.

DETAILS:

The Department of Optometry, ARKA JAIN University in collaboration with the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Cell and NSS, observed the JANJATIYA GOURAV VARSH PLANTATION DRIVE on 10th January 2025 at a Primary School near Musarikudar village to honor the contributions of tribal communities to India's history and culture. The event was aimed at promoting environmental conservation and spreading awareness about the invaluable role of tribal heritage in fostering sustainable living practices.

The event witnessed active participation from the faculty and students of the Department of Optometry, NSS volunteers, and school children.

Representatives from Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Cell also played a pivotal role in organizing and conducting the event. The event was engaged by a conversation about ethical living, empathy, and collective responsibilities towards society by Dr. Manoj Kumar Pathak from NSS, and Mr. Sarbojeet Goswami, HOD of Optometry.

The session was engaged in a lively discussion on the impact of kindness on individual growth and societal development. Participants were educated on the importance of nurturing plants and ensuring their survival. Participants of B. Optometry 1st Sem students prepared and distributed 30 small token of gifts among small children. Towards the end of the event, a variety of native plant species were carefully selected and planted on the premises of a primary school at Musarikudar village. The event successfully encouraged a sense of environmental responsibility among students and the local community. The event received positive feedback from participants, with many expressing their willingness to join similar initiatives in the future.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES):

The Janjatiya Gourav Varsh Plantation Drive organized by the Department of Optometry in association with the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Cell and NSS was a meaningful step towards honouring tribal heritage and fostering environmental sustainability. The collective efforts of all participants underscore the importance of collaboration in addressing pressing global challenges like deforestation and climate change.
