Report on– CONSTITUTION DAY- “Unity in Diversity”

Held on – 26th November 2024

Date of Event	26.11.2024
Name of the Event	Constitution Day- “Unity in Diversity”
Type of the Event	Commemorative Event/ A Competitive Event
Conducted by	Ms. DEBANGINI, DEPARTMENT OF OPTOMETRY, ARKA JAIN University
No. of students participated	07

OBJECTIVE: In observance of Constitution Day, celebrated on November 26th every year, to honor the adoption of the Constitution of India. Constitution Day commemorates the day when the Indian Constitution was adopted in 1949 and came into effect on January 26, 1950. This significant day is observed to promote awareness about the Constitution and its importance in the governance and democracy of India.

DETAILS: On 26th November 2024, the Department of Optometry, School of Health and Allied Science, Arka Jain University observed the constitution day under the theme “Unity in Diversity” organized a Painting/ Poster Making Competition. The event aimed to honor the adoption of the Constitution of India. The competition aimed to highlight the core constitutional value of unity in diversity, which is a foundational principle of India's national identity.

The theme “Unity in Diversity”, was introduced to the participants. The theme encouraged students to visually interpret how diverse cultures, religions, languages, and traditions come together to form a harmonious and unified nation. Participants of B. Optometry were asked to explore how India's pluralistic society coexists peacefully, respecting the rights, core principles such as justice, equality, freedom, fraternity, and identities of individuals while contributing to the collective identity of the nation.

The entries were evaluated by the judge panel. The judges assessed each artwork based on creativity, relevance to the theme, originality, and the overall message conveyed. An interactive session was held where the participants shared the inspiration behind their artwork. This provided attendees with insights into how each piece reflected their interpretation of the theme. The event was judged by Dr. Manoj Kumar Pathak sir and Mr. Anup Kumar Singh sir, where they highlighted how the constitution ensures equal rights for all citizens, irrespective of their differences, fostering an inclusive and unified nation. The first, second, and third-place winners were recognized for their exceptional portrayal of Unity in Diversity awarded certificates. The event ended with a vote of thanks delivered by the HOD of Optometry, Mr. Sarbojeet Goswami sir who acknowledged the contributions of all participants and organizers.

The event underscored the importance of recognizing and celebrating the diversity that strengthens India's unity, a theme that resonates at the very heart of the Indian Constitution. The day reminded everyone that while India is a land of multiple languages, cultures, and traditions, it remains united through its shared values and democratic ethos.

OUTCOMES: The Constitution Day Painting and Poster Making Competition on the theme of "Unity in Diversity" was an inspiring and successful event. It encouraged participants to reflect on the values enshrined in the Indian Constitution, such as justice, equality, and respect for all, and express these ideals through art. The competition provided a unique opportunity for individuals to showcase their creativity while engaging deeply with the nation's democratic values.
