Report on– WORLD KINDNESS DAY

“MULYA PRAVAH AN INITIATIVE UNDER UNIVERSAL HUMAN VALUES”

Held on – 22nd November 2024

Date of Event	22.11.2024
Name of the Event	WORLD KINDNESS DAY- “Mulya Pravah an initiative under universal human values”.
Type of the Event	A Life Skill Development Programme
Conducted by	Ms. Debangini and Ms. Soma Ghosh, DEPARTMENT OF OPTOMETRY, ARKA JAIN University
No. of Students Participated	15

OBJECTIVE: In celebration of World Kindness Day, the Mulya Pravah initiative, an educational program fostering universal human values, organized a thought-provoking and inspiring event to emphasize the significance of kindness in shaping a compassionate world. The event aimed to promote positive values and moral responsibility among participants, highlighting kindness, empathy, and understanding as crucial elements for personal and collective well-being.

DETAILS: World Kindness Day, observed globally on November 13, offers a moment for individuals and organizations to reflect on the importance of kindness. Mulya Pravah, meaning "flow of values," is a program that seeks to build a culture of ethical living based on universal human values, such as compassion, integrity, and respect for all.

ARKA JAIN University, Department of Optometry, Ikshana Club, in collaboration with NSS, organized World Kindness Day, Mulya Pravah, an initiative under universal human values, on 22nd November 2024 at a Primary School near Musarikudar village. To celebrate and raise awareness among children about World Kindness Day, and also to inspire participants and children to integrate kindness into daily life, fostering positive attributes, inclusive and harmonious society.

The event was engaged by conversation about ethical living, empathy, and collective responsibilities towards the society by Dr. Manoj Kumar Pathak from NSS, and Mr. Sarbojeet Goswami, HOD of Optometry. The session was engaged in a lively discussion on the impact of kindness on individual growth and societal development. Participants of B. Optometry 1st Sem students prepared and distributed 60 small token of gifts to appreciate and spreading kindness among small children.

The day conducted with a call to action: with a motto, “Not me but You” for each person to not only practice kindness but also to encourage others to do the same. The Mulya Pravah initiative continues to be a guiding force in shaping a more positive, inclusive, and harmonious society, one act of kindness at a time.

OUTCOMES: The World Kindness Day, “Mulya Pravah an initiative under universal human values”, successfully brought together people of all ages specially school going children to learn and understand the importance of kindness and its role in creating a compassionate and just world. By emphasizing universal human values, the event sought to inspire participants to integrate ethical principles such as respect, empathy, and care into their everyday lives.
