Blood Donation Camp on Founder's Day Observance

Date of Event	03.03.2025
Name of the Event	Blood Donation Camp on Founder's Day Observance
Type of the Event	Extension Activity/ Community Service
Conducted by	NSS, ARKA JAIN University
No. of Participants	123 participants

OBJECTIVE: The Blood Donation Camp was to promote the significance of voluntary blood donation, to create awareness about the need for safe and adequate blood supply and to encourage students and faculty to contribute to a life-saving cause. It was also to support hospitals and patients in need of blood transfusion and to foster a spirit of social responsibility and humanitarian service.

DETAILS:

On the occasion of the birth anniversary of the visionary industrialist J. N. Tata, ARKA JAIN University observed the Founder's Day by organizing a Blood Donation Camp on March 3, 2025. The event was conducted by AJU NSS in collaboration with the Red Cross Society and the Rotary Club Jamshedpur Green.

The camp witnessed an overwhelming response from students, faculty, and staff members, who actively participated in the noble cause. A total of 123 units of blood were collected during the drive, contributing significantly to the regional blood banks and helping patients in need.

The initiative was well-coordinated by Mr. Paras Nath Mishra, Dr. Manoj Kumar Pathak, and Dr. Rajeev Kumar Sinha, who played a pivotal role in ensuring the smooth execution of the camp. Proper medical supervision was maintained throughout the event, ensuring a safe and hygienic blood donation process.

The event successfully spread awareness about the importance of blood donation and encouraged more people to contribute to this life-saving cause. The collaborative efforts of AJU NSS, Red Cross Society, and the Rotary Club Jamshedpur Green were highly commendable, making the camp a resounding success.

This initiative not only honoured the legacy of J. N. Tata but also reinforced the university's commitment to social responsibility and community service.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES): The event successfully spread awareness about the importance of blood donation and encouraged more people to contribute to this life-saving cause. It also ensured active participation from students and faculty, fostering a culture of community service and strengthened partnerships between AJU NSS, Red Cross Society, and Rotary Club Jamshedpur Green.
