WORLD WATER DAY

Date of Event	21.03.2025
Name of the Event	World Water Day
Type of the Event	Days and Celebration
Conducted by	National Cadets Corps
No. Of Participants	37

OBJECTIVE:

- To raise awareness about the significance of water conservation and its global importance.
- To educate students and community members about the value of every drop of water.
- To promote sustainable practices and responsible water usage among youth and the wider public.

DETAILS:

The World Water Day Seminar titled "Value of One Drop of Water" was organized by the NCC cadets of Arka Jain University on 21st March 2025. The event was part of a global observance to highlight the importance of freshwater and advocate for the sustainable management of water resources. A total of 37 NCC cadets, including 30 Senior Division (SD) and 07 Senior Wing (SW) members, participated in the seminar alongside faculty members, environmental activists, and local students.

Activities:

The seminar featured insightful talks from environmental experts, university faculty, and senior NCC officers.

Speakers emphasized the scarcity of clean water, the impact of water pollution, and simple ways individuals can contribute to conservation efforts.

Real-life statistics and case studies were presented to highlight the urgent need for water management.

Cadets presented posters and short videos demonstrating the importance of water and ways to prevent wastage.

Models showcasing rainwater harvesting and water purification techniques were displayed.

Interactive Session:

An open discussion was conducted where students shared their thoughts and ideas on saving water.

Participants pledged to conserve water in their daily lives and encouraged others to do the same.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES):

- The seminar successfully instilled awareness about the value of water and the need for its conservation.
- Cadets and participants demonstrated enthusiasm, curiosity, and a proactive approach to environmental issues.
- The program promoted a sense of responsibility and inspired participants to act as ambassadors for water conservation in their communities.
- The initiative supported Arka Jain University's mission to nurture environmentally conscious and responsible citizens.
