OBJECTIVE: The primary objective of the Career Counselling Session is to provide students a comprehensive guidance and information to make informed decisions about their educational and career paths.

DETAILS: The IACC Career Counselling Session, held on May 7th, 2024, at JEH Auditorium, was a highly anticipated event aimed at guiding students and young professionals in their educational and career choices. The session featured prominent speakers from the education and career guidance fields, providing attendees with valuable insights and information.

Speakers Pofile

1. Megha Roy Chatterjee: EducationUSA Adviser at the United States-India Educational Foundation (USIEF)

Profile: Megha Roy Chatterjee brings extensive experience in conducting educational workshops and sessions focused on higher education management across East and Northeast India. Her role as an EducationUSA Adviser involves guiding students aspiring to pursue higher education in the United States, offering comprehensive advice on various aspects of the application process, scholarships, and cultural adjustments.

2. Cdr Sanjeev Raman (Retd): Chairman, IACC - Jharkhand Chapter
Profile: Commander Sanjeev Raman (Retd) is a respected figure in the Indo-American Chamber of Commerce, particularly within the Jharkhand Chapter. With a distinguished career in the Indian Navy and significant contributions to the IACC, he brings a wealth of experience in leadership, strategic planning, and career development.

The session commenced with a welcome address by Cdr Sanjeev Raman, who introduced the IACC's mission and the significance of career counselling in today's competitive environment. He emphasized the importance of making informed career choices and the role of such sessions in bridging the knowledge gap.

Megha Roy Chatterjee, covered various aspects of pursuing higher education in the United States. Topics included:

- The application process for U.S. universities
- Standardized tests and their importance
- Scholarship opportunities and financial aid
- Preparing for the cultural shift and adapting to life in the U.S.

Her engaging presentation style and detailed insights provided attendees with a clear understanding of the steps involved in applying to U.S. institutions and the resources available to support their educational journey. The discussion addressed common concerns and queries from the audience, ranging from career planning strategies to specific questions about studying abroad. The speakers shared their personal experiences and offered practical advice, making the session highly interactive and informative.

The expertise and experience of the speakers, combined with the interactive format of the session, ensured that participants left with a wealth of knowledge and practical advice to aid their future endeavors.
