OBJECTIVE: The objective of conducting KANGRI Free Distribution of Clothes to the Underprivileged is to educate the students about Human Values. Free clothes should be donated to the underprivileged because it provides them with essential clothing that they might not be able to afford, improving their quality of life and protecting them from extreme climatic conditions.

DETAILS: Many underprivileged individuals lack access to adequate clothing due to financial constraints, making donated clothes a crucial source for basic-necessities. Donating clothes to local charities or organizations allows you to directly support members of the community who are struggling. While donating clothes the need of the community should be considered including climate and cultural factors.

Under the flagship of Unnat Bharat Abhiyan on December 6th, 2024, the School of Pharmacy in association with BHESAJAM the Pharma Club of Pharmacy and NSS ARKA JAIN University, Jharkhand ventured to the nearby village Musari Kudar to donate warm clothes to the underprivileged. The event is entitled as KANGRI (an earthen pot woven around with wicker filled with hot embers used by Kashmiris beneath their traditional clothing pheran to keep the chill at bay). A small effort by the students of School of Pharmacy conducts every year. This year it is the 4th episode of KANGRI was observed. The entire program was conceptualized by Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo and executed successfully under the coordination of Purnima Mahato, Pravash Ranjan Dash, Sumanta Sen, Mr Asutosha and Nisha Panda. Dr. Jasbir Singh Dhanjal the Joint Registrar, Dr. S. S. Razi the CBOM and Dr. Amit Srivastav Registrar of AJU appreciated the effort.

OUTCOMES: After the completion of the event students realised the bare necessity of the underprivileged regarding food, shelter and clothes. Nation with poverty can not grow. Everyone needs to join hand to help the underprivileged by any means as per capacity.
