WORLD FINANCIAL PLANNING DAY

Date of the Event	30.10.2024
Name of the Event	World Financial Planning Day
Type of the Event	Academic (Participative)
Conducted by	Ms. Suman Kumari & Mr. Ranjan Kumar
No. Of Participant	47

OBJECTIVE: The main objective of celebrating World Financial Planning Day at Arka Jain University was to raise awareness about the importance of financial planning and to provide students with the tools and knowledge necessary for effective financial decision-making. The event aimed to highlight the significance of long-term financial goals, informed decision-making, and the role of professional financial planners in securing a prosperous future. By celebrating this day, the university intended to empower students to take control of their financial futures and encourage the adoption of sound financial practices.

DETAILS: The World Financial Planning Day was celebrated on 30th October 2024 and was organized by the Department of Commerce in collaboration with the Finance Club. The event took place in the F Block, Room No- 608 with active participation from both students and faculty members. It was coordinated by Ms. Suman Kumari and Mr. Ranjan Kumar.

The event featured an insightful quiz competition focused on Accounts and Law, encouraging students to test their knowledge and deepen their understanding of financial concepts. The quiz was designed to promote learning and engagement with critical aspects of financial planning, such as budgeting, investment, and legal considerations in financial management.

TAKEAWAYS: World Financial Planning Day proved to be an enlightening and engaging event for all participants. It emphasized the critical need for sound financial planning, which can have a lasting positive impact on individuals' financial well-being. The event helped students understand that financial planning is not just about managing money but also about setting clear goals, understanding financial risks, and planning for the future.
