OBJECTIVE:

The objective of conducting a seminar on gender sensitization was to raise awareness about gender equality and the challenges marginalized genders face. The seminar aims to educate participants on recognizing biases, stereotypes, and discrimination. It seeks to promote respect, empathy, and inclusion in all spheres of life. Ultimately, it encourages behavior change to foster a more equitable and just society.

DETAILS:

ARKA Jain University, Department of English organized a seminar on Gender Sensitisation. The main aim of the event was to raise gender awareness among students. The program began at 11.30 am with the lightening of the ceremonial lamp, Dr. S. S. Razi, Board of Management, Joint Registrar Mr. Jabir Singh Dhanjal, Dr. Amit Kumar, IQAC Cell, along with faculties of B.A. English, Arka Jain University at JEH Auditorium, Block A. The resource person of the event was Dr. Charu Wadhwa, Dean CCHRD. In her address she enlightened the students on the stereotype myth that blocks the mentality of society adversely hampering the growth and development of this section of society.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES):

The program helped in a deeper understanding of gender equality and the importance of challenging stereotypes. It empowered the students to recognize and address gender-based discrimination in everyday life. The program encourages a commitment to creating a respectful and inclusive campus environment for all.

POSTER OF THE EVENT

The poster features a pink and yellow gradient background.
