OBSERVATIONAL VISIT TO URBAN PRIMARY HEALTH CENTRE, ADITYAPUR

Date of Event	12.07.2025
Name of the Event	Observational Visit to Urban Primary Centre, Adityapur
Type of the Event	Skill development, Outreach Activity
Conducted by	School of Nursing
No. Of Participants	41

OBJECTIVE:

To understand the organizational structure and functioning of an Urban Primary Health Centre, to observe the delivery of urban healthcare services, identify the roles of various healthcare personnel in an urban setup & to understand the implementation of national health programs in urban areas

DETAILS:

The School of Nursing, ARKA JAIN University was organized an observational visit to the Urban Primary Health Centre (UPHC), Adityapur on 12th July 2025 at 10:00 AM onwards as a part of the Community Health Nursing curriculum. This visit aimed to give the B.Sc. Nursing 5th semester student's practical exposure to the working system of urban health services. Students were warmly welcomed by the Medical Officer-in-Charge and the health care team. An orientation session was conducted on the scope of services provided by the UPHC, including Outpatient services, Maternal and Child Health (MCH), Family Planning, Immunization, Laboratory, and Non-Communicable Disease (NCD) clinics. Students visited each department and observed the health services being delivered. The staff demonstrated documentation practices and explained the referral linkage with higher centres. The students interacted with ASHA workers and ANMs regarding their field responsibilities and outreach activities. The Program was conducted under the guidance of Prof. Ginu Anie Joseph (Principal) & Prof. Shilpa J (Vice Principal) School of Nursing.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES):

Students understood the healthcare delivery system in an urban setup, observed how public health services are made accessible to urban poor populations, and developed awareness about the practical application of national health programs, gained knowledge of documentation procedures and team-based healthcare delivery.
