SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP CONCLAVE ON WOMEN ENTREPRENEURSHIP AND INCLUSIVE GROWTH

Date of Event	09-02-2025
Name of the Event	Social Entrepreneurship Conclave on Women Entrepreneurship and Inclusive Growth
Type of the Event	Experiential Learning
Conducted by	Prof. Mukul Pandey and Prof. Barun Kumar Jha
No. of Participants	18

OBJECTIVE:

The purpose of the Social Entrepreneurship Conclave on Women Entrepreneurship and Inclusive Growth was to promote inclusive economic growth and empower women entrepreneurs. The panellists presented Innovative company ideas, exchanged useful insights and practical solutions for creating entrepreneurial ecosystem and inspire it by the event.

The students of the Department of Management – MBA participated in this conclave with a sheer objective to experience the insights of the panellists which shall not only help the students in a better understanding of the topic but also widen their horizon in terms of their overall thought process.

DETAILS:

More than 150 people attended this event to talk about the theme of "Women Entrepreneurship & Inclusive Growth," including students, business executives, and social entrepreneurs. Around 18 shortlisted and interested students attended this session.

The keynote speaker of the conference was Roopa Roshan Sahoo, IAS, Revenue Divisional Commissioner for Southern Division, Berhampur. She discussed the policy frameworks, obstacles, and possibilities for promoting a fair entrepreneurship environment for Indian women.

There were 2 Panels which gave very thought-provoking discussions and Emphasized upon Empowerment of Women. The salient discussions in the panel were as under -

Panel 1: Corporate Women's Empowerment Initiatives & Policies. The panel, which was facilitated by Smt. Manasmita Jena (Executive Council Member, SVNIRTAR, Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment, Government of India), examined how businesses and legislators can promote significant change. The importance of company policy, leadership representation, and finance availability for women entrepreneurs were covered by distinguished panelists, including Ameyavikrama Thanvi (Supreme Court Advocate), Prof. Sasmita Samanta (Founder & Chairperson, SOUL Limited), and Mohini Priya (Supreme Court Advocate).

Panel 2: Women-Centric Entrepreneurs Drive Innovation. This session showcased creative business models that support women and their changing socio-economic roles. It featured Padmavati Uttarwar (Advisory Board Member for multiple organizations), Premrata Poonia (Founder, Hamari Laado), Bhavana Issar (Founder & CEO, Caregiver Saathi), Usha Paliath (CEO, Confederation of Women Entrepreneurs of India), and Aiswarya Chandrashekhar (Chief Impact Officer, FIA). In order to scale women-led businesses, the conversation focused on breaking down obstacles, utilizing technology, and encouraging mentorship.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES):

The MBA students acquired useful information about effective social entrepreneurship models and the legislative frameworks that assist women-led projects. They were also sensitized on the following -

- Networking Opportunities: The gathering gave aspiring business owners a chance to meet seasoned executives and possible mentors.
- Practical Strategies: Participants left with doable plans for overcoming gender bias, obtaining capital, and maintaining their businesses.
- Policy Recommendations: As a result of the conversations, recommendations were made to improve government assistance and create an entrepreneurial environment that is more inclusive.

All things considered, the conclave was an exciting and motivating experience that gave MBA students the tools they needed to support women entrepreneurs and promote equitable economic growth.
