BLOOD DONATION CAMP

Date of Event	9 July, 2025
Name of the Event	Blood Donation Camp
Type of the Event	Community Service
Conducted by	National Service Scheme (NSS)
No. of Participants	81

OBJECTIVE:

To promote voluntary blood donation and instill a sense of social responsibility among students and staff.

DETAILS:

A Blood Donation Camp was organized by the NSS Cell of ARKA JAIN University (AJU) in association with Tata Steel Foundation on 9th July 2025 at the university campus. The camp was conducted with the support of Jamshedpur Blood Centre, which undertook the collection and safe handling of the donated blood.

During the camp, a total of 60 units of blood were collected. The initiative saw enthusiastic participation from NSS volunteers, faculty members, and staff, who came forward to contribute to this noble cause.

On the occasion, dignitaries and representatives from AJU and Tata Steel Foundation addressed the gathering and highlighted the significance of voluntary blood donation. They emphasized that donating blood not only saves lives but also strengthens the spirit of compassion and social responsibility among the youth.

Pro Vice-Chancellor Prof. (Dr.) Angad Tiwary said that voluntary blood donation reflects the highest values of humanity and empathy. Such initiatives strengthen our university's commitment to social responsibility. Registrar, Dr. Amit Kumar Shrivastav appreciated the NSS Cell, Tata Steel Foundation, and Jamshedpur Blood Centre for their collective effort. He said that every unit of blood donated today is a lifeline for someone in need. NSS Coordinator and Program Officers were also of the view that blood donation is the most direct way to serve society.

As a gesture of appreciation, gifts, nutritious snacks, and meals were provided to all the donors. The event concluded with a vote of thanks to all volunteers, donors, and supporting organizations for making the camp successful.

OUTCOME: 60 units of blood were collected successfully, supporting patients in need and fostering community engagement.
