OBJECTIVE: The primary objective of the Foundation Day celebration was to honour the institution's journey, recognizing the contributions of individuals who have played pivotal roles in its success.

DETAILS: The foundation day of Campus Public School, celebrated annually on the 15th of July, is a momentous occasion that marks a significant milestone in the school's journey. The day is commemorated with great enthusiasm, encompassing a range of engaging activities and events. The presence of dignitaries from senior management level of the University is highly valued as they provide valuable insights and suggestions to further enhance the school's development in the upcoming academic session. This special day serves as a platform for collaboration and knowledge sharing, as the suggestions put forth by the dignitaries and educational experts are carefully considered and implemented throughout the following academic year. Their valuable input helps shape the overall growth and progress of the school, ensuring its commitment to all-around development is upheld. The foundation day celebrations also serve as a means of recognizing and appreciating the dedicated efforts of the school's staff members and other individuals involved in its operations. It provides an opportunity for all members associated with the school to come together, share their experiences, and reinforce the sense of unity and purpose that drives the institution forward. Towards the promotion of the initiative, themed "One Step towards Environment Conservation", school gifted glass water bottles to its faculties and senior management, aiming to discourage the use of plastic bottles. The School holds the foundation day festivities in high regard, as it symbolizes not only the school's past achievements but also its aspirations for the future. It is a day filled with pride, celebration, and the collective determination to continue providing an exceptional educational experience to its students.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES): To strengthen sense of community and belonging among members of the organization, renewed commitment to the organization's mission and values, and a greater appreciation for its history and achievements.
