RANG E ALFAZ

Date of Event	28.03.2025
Name of the Event	Rang-e-Alfaz - An Open Mic Event (Poetry/Stand-up/Shayari/Storytelling)
Type of the Event	Language & Communication Skill
Conducted by	School of Commerce & Management (UG)
Coordinated by	Dr. Sunita Jha and Ms.Tanushree Mahato
No. Of Participants	6

OBJECTIVE:

The objective of "Rang-e-Alfaz" was to provide a platform for students to express their creativity and voice through spoken word performances in the form of poetry, stand-up, shayari, or storytelling. This open mic event aimed to promote self-expression, confidence, and appreciation for literary arts among students.

DETAILS:

On March 28, 2025, during the "YUVA 4.0" youth festival, the School of Commerce and Management at ARKA JAIN University hosted "Rang-e-Alfaz," an open mic event. Participants were tasked with creating original performances—such as poetry, storytelling, shayari, or stand-up—based on a given word. Entries, accepted in Hindi or English, were limited to five minutes and allowed creative elements like props or music. Each participant showcased originality, humor, emotions, or socio-cultural themes, making the event a vibrant and thought-provoking experience. The first prize included a ₹750 cash reward, and every participant was given a certificate of participation, encouraging inclusivity and enthusiasm.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES):

The event successfully achieved its goal of encouraging artistic and verbal expression. Students has gained :

- Improved public speaking and stage confidence.
- Recognition of creative talents within their peers.
- Exposure to different forms of storytelling and cultural narratives.
- A supportive environment that celebrated individuality and originality.
