EXPERT TALK SESSION BY MR. AMOD KUMAR

Date of Event	26.08.2025
Name of the Event	Expert Talk Session by Mr. Amod Kumar
Type of the Event	Teaching Learning Pedagogy and Career Enhancement
Conducted by	School of Pharmacy in association with Research and Development Cell (Department Research Committee, Department_ School of Pharmacy and Product Development and Commercialization Committee).
No. Of Participants	50

OBJECTIVE:

The session aims to provide participants with insights, strategies, and practical guidance on career enhancement, focusing on skill development, goal setting, professional growth opportunities, and hospital-oriented competencies that will enable them to progress confidently in their chosen career paths.

DETAILS:

The School of Pharmacy at ARKA JAIN University, in association Research and Development Cell (Department Research Committee, Department_ School of Pharmacy and Product Development and Commercialization Committee) organized an Expert talk session during AARAMBH- 2025 on August 26th, 2025, from 10:30 AM onwards at Block B, Sushruta. The esteemed speaker for the session was Mr. Amod Kumar, Chief Pharmacist, Sadar Hospital, Khas Mahal, Jamshedpur, Jharkhand.

Mr. Amod Kumar emphasized the vital role of hospital pharmacists in strengthening the healthcare system. He elaborated that the scope of a pharmacist's work is not confined to dispensing medicines; rather, it extends to multiple aspects of patient care and hospital management. He explained that pharmacists are indispensable in the inpatient department, where they ensure accurate drug administration, monitor therapy, and prevent medication errors. In the outpatient department, they play an equally important role by counselling patients on proper medication use, potential side effects, and lifestyle modifications to enhance therapeutic outcomes. He highlighted their crucial presence in emergency services and intensive care units, where the timely availability of life-saving drugs and precise dosage calculation can directly impact survival. Similarly, in operation theatres and neonatal wards, pharmacists ensure the availability of specialized medicines and support the medical team in maintaining high standards of safety and efficacy. Furthermore, Mr. Kumar pointed out that hospital pharmacists also take responsibility for inventory and supply chain management, ensuring that essential drugs are always available and wastage is minimized. They provide updated drug information to doctors and nurses, assist in selecting cost-effective alternatives, and participate in clinical ward rounds to contribute to evidence-based decision-making. By fulfilling these diverse responsibilities, pharmacists not only support doctors and nurses but also act as a bridge between the healthcare team and patients. He concluded by noting that through their expertise, hospital pharmacists significantly enhance patient safety, promote rational drug use, and contribute to better health outcomes, thereby improving the overall.

Prof. (Dr.) Jyotirmaya Sahoo, Dean, School of Pharmacy, felicitated Mr. Amod Kumar with a memento in appreciation of his valuable time and contribution. The expert talk session was highly engaging and offered profound insights into the journey and professional growth of a hospital pharmacist. The event concluded successfully, leaving a lasting impression on all participants.

The program was successfully coordinated by Ms. Priyabati Choudhury and Mr. Subha Pramanik, under the supervision of Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo, Dean, School of Pharmacy, ARKA JAIN University.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES):

The session highlighted that hospital pharmacists play a multifaceted role in healthcare, extending beyond dispensing medicines to ensuring patient safety, rational drug use, and effective hospital management. Students gained insights into the diverse responsibilities of pharmacists in inpatient, outpatient, emergency, and specialized units, as well as their role in patient counselling, inventory control, and clinical decision-making. The talk inspired students to recognize the significance of their profession and motivated them to develop the skills required to excel as future hospital pharmacists.
