OBSERVANCE OF NATIONAL ANTI-RAGGING WEEK

Date of Event	12.08.2025-18.08.2025
Name of the Event	OBSERVANCE OF NATIONAL ANTI-RAGGING WEEK
Type of the Event	Awareness and Competitive Event
Conducted by	Ms.Bhavana Kumari and Ms. Soma Ghosh, Department of Optometry in association with IKSHANA CLUB, ARKA JAIN University
No. Of Student's Participants	55 students and 6 faculties

OBJECTIVE:

As part of the nationwide effort to raise awareness against ragging, the Department of Optometry, School of Allied Health Sciences at ARKA JAIN University conducted "Anti-Ragging Week" from August 12th to 18th, 2025. This week-long initiative focused on educating students about the harmful effects of ragging and encouraging a campus environment rooted in respect and inclusivity. The primary goals of the event were to educate students about the harmful consequences of ragging, to foster a safe and welcoming environment on campus, and to actively involve students in various activities that reinforced the importance of anti-ragging values. Various activities such as a poster contest, thematic talks, and short film screenings were organized to actively involve students and reinforce the message of zero tolerance toward ragging. This event aimed at sensitizing students and encouraging active participation through awareness programs and competitive activities.

DETAILS:

The Anti-Ragging Week, held from August 12th to 18th, 2025, was organized by the Department of Optometry at ARKA JAIN University to raise awareness and prevent ragging on campus. The week featured a range of activities designed to educate and actively involve students in understanding the harmful effects of ragging.

August 13, 2025: An Introduction to anti-ragging by Mr. Sarbojeet Goswami, HOD , Department of Optometry, School of Allied Health Science delivered an insightful talk on the importance of anti-ragging measures and fostering a safe campus environment. The session focused on the severe psychological, emotional, and legal repercussions of ragging. The speaker stressed the importance of fostering a supportive campus atmosphere where students feel safe and respected. The talk encouraged students to take responsibility for upholding a ragging-free environment and included an interactive Q&A segment, allowing students to express their concerns and deepen their understanding of the issue.

August 14, 2025: The event culminated with the screening of a powerful anti-ragging short film that portrayed real-life experiences and the serious consequences of ragging. Through compelling storytelling and visuals, the documentary highlighted the psychological trauma, physical injuries, and long-lasting effects caused by ragging. A discussion followed the screening, where students reflected on the film's message, reinforcing the commitment to a campus free from ragging. The film served as a strong call for ongoing vigilance and collective effort to ensure a safe environment for all students.

August 16, 2025: The third day of Anti-Ragging Week, a Poster Competition was held to creatively express anti-ragging messages. Students participated enthusiastically, using their artistic skills to highlight themes of unity, respect, and the harmful effects of ragging. The competition aimed to raise awareness and encourage a ragging-free campus culture through visual storytelling.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES):

The Anti-Ragging Week was a significant initiative that effectively raised awareness about the harmful effects of ragging and emphasized the importance of a safe, respectful campus environment. Through various activities like poster competitions, talks, and film screenings, students actively engaged with the message of zero tolerance toward ragging. The week fostered a strong sense of responsibility, empathy, and unity among students, encouraging them to promote and maintain a ragging-free culture on campus. Overall, the event reinforced the university's commitment to student safety and inclusivity.
