OBJECTIVE:

- To create awareness among new students about the ill effects of ragging and its legal as well as institutional consequences.
- To promote a safe, inclusive, and respectful campus environment free from ragging, harassment, and discrimination.
- To familiarize students with the UGC guidelines, university policies, and grievance redressal mechanisms related to ragging and sexual harassment.
- To encourage students to actively participate in the Anti-Ragging Slogan Writing Competition as a creative means of spreading awareness
- To sensitize students towards mutual respect, empathy, and ethical conduct in academic and social spaces.
- To instil a sense of responsibility and accountability in students for maintaining discipline and harmony within the campus.
- To empower students to become advocates for anti-ragging practices and to confidently report any incident of harassment or misconduct.

DETAILS:

As part of the Student Induction and Orientation Programme 2025, a session on “Curbing the Menace of Ragging for New Students – Anti-Ragging Slogan Writing Competition” was conducted for the fresh batch of the School of Humanities (Department of English | Department of Fashion Design | Department of Journalism & Mass Communication).

Date: 14th August 2025

Time: 11:30 AM onwards

Venue: E Block, Room 525, 3rd Floor, AJU Campus

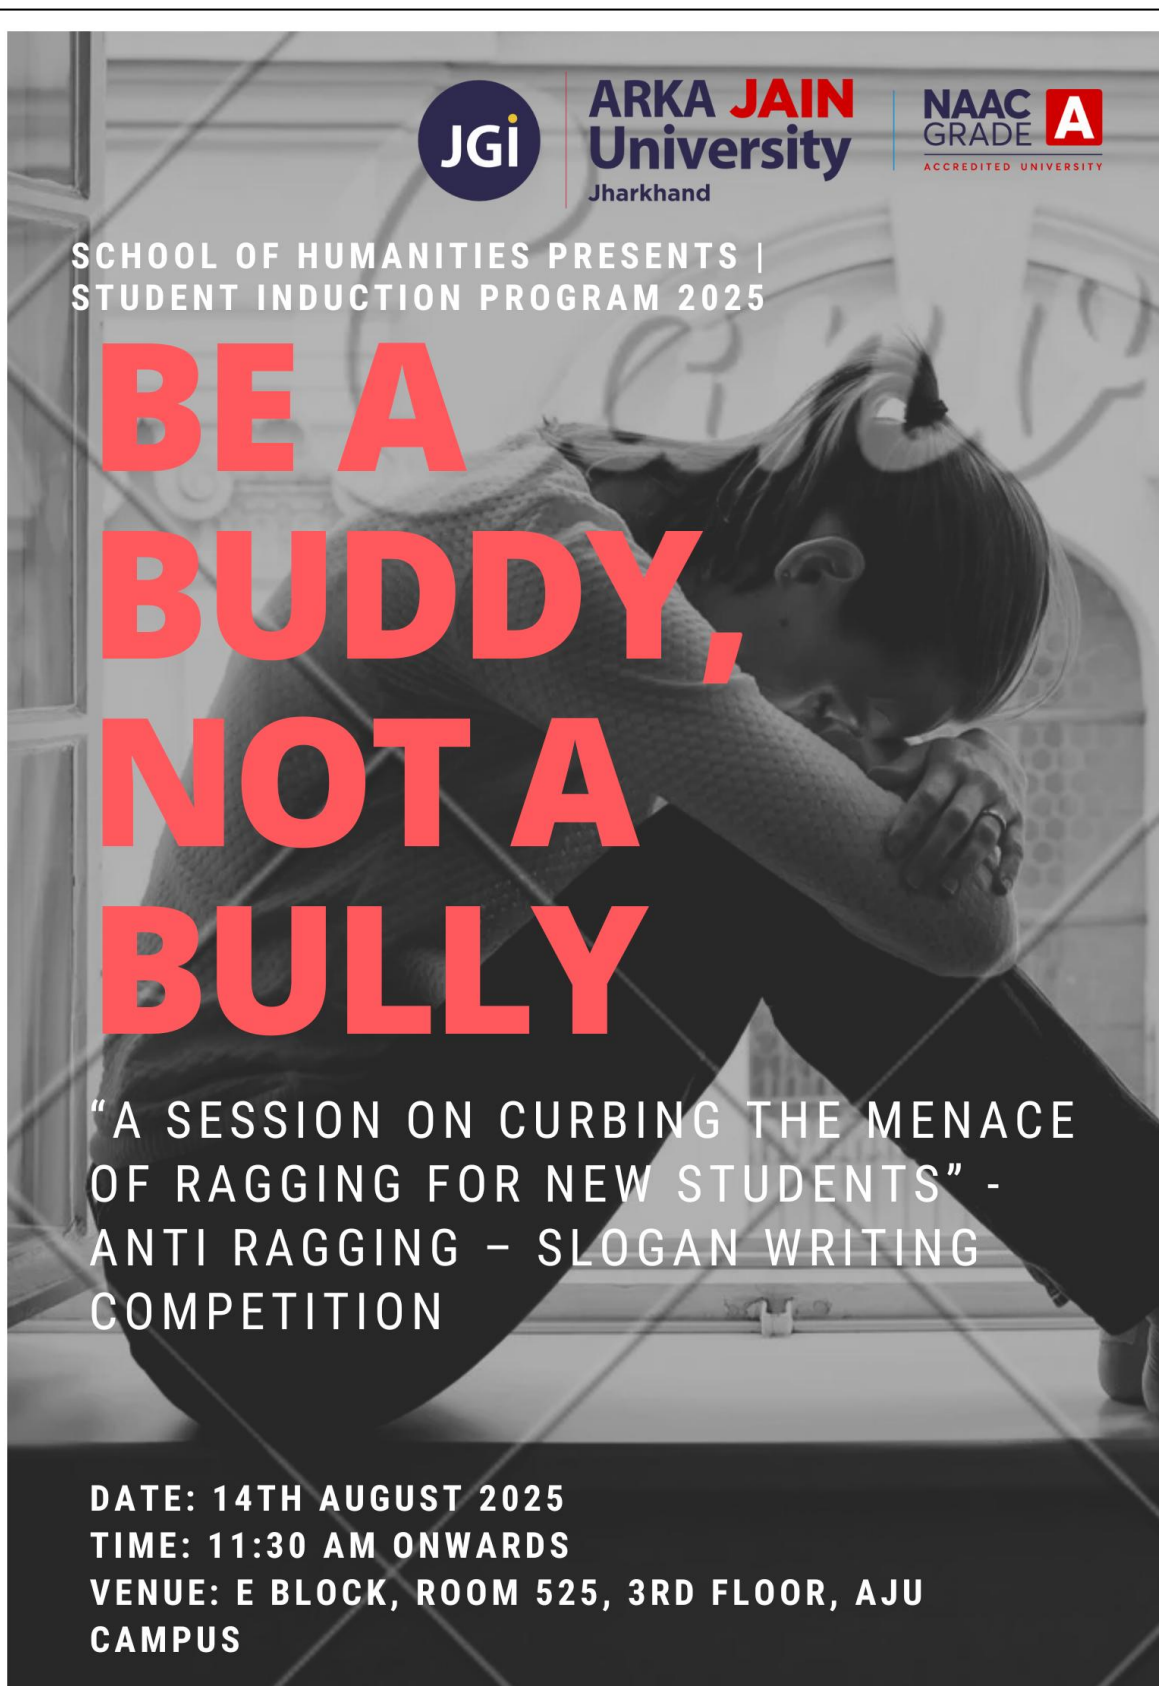

Organized by: Ms. Urmila Thakur, Assistant Professor, Department of Journalism & Mass Communication

The session aimed at sensitizing students about the harmful impacts of ragging and the importance of creating a safe, respectful, and inclusive campus. It also highlighted the University's anti-ragging policies, redressal mechanisms, and the legal consequences of ragging.

To reinforce the awareness drive, an Anti-Ragging Slogan Writing Competition was held, where students expressed their thoughts creatively, promoting messages of harmony, safety, and mutual respect within the campus community.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES):

- Students became aware of the seriousness of ragging and its consequences, both legally and institutionally.
- The session fostered a sense of responsibility to uphold a safe and respectful learning environment on campus.
- Through the Slogan Writing Competition, students actively engaged in spreading awareness and promoting anti-ragging values in a creative way.
- The initiative encouraged a culture of mutual respect, empathy, and inclusivity among the new batch.
- Students were informed about the support systems and complaint redressal mechanisms available at the University.
