OBJECTIVE:

On the auspicious occasion of India's 79th Independence Day, ARKA JAIN University proudly organized an Essay writing competition with the moto of Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat. It was conducted on 12th of August, 2025 aimed to encourage students to reflect upon the ideals of unity, cultural diversity, and national integration that form the backbone of our nation.

DETAILS:

ARKA Jain University organized an Essay writing competition to allow participants to creatively express their understanding of unity, harmony, and national pride and also motivate young citizens to contribute positively towards the country's progress while cherishing its diversity. As directed by the Department of English following the theme, "Nation First, Always First". The event not only encouraged literary skills among students but also strengthened their sense of national pride. The competition was held on 12th August 2025 in the college. Over many students from various departments participated enthusiastically, showcasing their knowledge, creativity, and love for the nation through their writings. Participants were given time limit up to one hour to write their essays, which were judged on content, originality, language, and relevance to the theme. Winners were announced and prizes were awarded to the top three participants.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES):

It helped participants understand and appreciate India's cultural diversity while fostering unity and patriotism. It enhanced students' creativity, research skills, and knowledge about different states and traditions, inspiring them to work towards national integration.
