OBJECTIVE: The Faculty Development Program (FDP) on "Navigating the Right Journals: The Research based approach" aimed to equip faculty members and research scholars with the knowledge and skills required to identify credible and impactful research journals. Organized by the Centre for Capacity Building and Human Resource Development and the Department of Management (BBA) at ARKA JAIN University, the one-week FDP was held from June 17-23. Led by Dr. Sunil Kumar, Assistant Professor, GITAM school of business; Dr. Manoj Mishra, Assistant Professor, Marwari University; Dr. Pravash Ghosh, Assistant Professor and Dean, ICFAI Business School; Dr. Swati Dhir, Assistant Professor, IMI, Delhi, the program sought to help faculty members to ensure ethical and high quality publication practices, enhance understanding of indexing, impact factors, and journal ranking system.

DETAILS: The FDP was structured as an interactive and immersive learning experience over six days, with 712 participants from India and abroad actively engaging in the program. Each day focused on different aspects of navigating the Right Journals.

Day-1: 17-06-2025: Open Access vs Subscription Journal & APC: Navigating the Publication landscape: Resource Person- Dr. Sunil Kumar, Assistant Professor, GITAM School of Business, Vishakhapatnam. Day-2: 18-06-2025: From Conference Paper to

Day-4: 20-06-2025: Identification of Fake and cloned journals: Resource Person- Dr. Pravash Ghosh, Assistant Professor & Dean, ICFAI Business School, Gurgaon.

Day-5: 21-06-2025: Hands-on Workshop on 'Identification of Fake and cloned journals': Resource Person- Dr. Pravash Ghosh, Assistant Professor & Dean, ICFAI Business School, Gurgaon. Day-6: 22-06-2025: Strategies for publishing in High impact journals: Resource Person Dr. Swati Dhir, Associate Professor, IMI, Delhi Day-7: 23-06-2025: Improving Research Visibility and citation through effective publishing: Resource Person- Dr. Swati Dhir, Associate Professor, IMI, Delhi.

OUTCOME: Participants reported an increased confidence in navigating journal databases and choosing the right publication avenues. The session motivated many to refine their research focus and aim for quality rather than quantity in academic publishing. A follow-up workshop or one-on-one mentoring sessions were suggested by attendees to further support them in manuscript preparation and submission.

Additionally, the program facilitated knowledge-sharing among educators from diverse backgrounds, further enhancing collaborative learning. The feedback from participants was overwhelmingly positive, with many expressing enthusiasms for navigating the Right Journals. The FDP significantly contributed to enhancing the overall quality of research.

The event reaffirmed ARKA JAIN University's commitment to academic excellence and faculty development. As the only NAAC 'A' accredited state private university in Bihar, Jharkhand, and West Bengal in the first cycle, AJU continues to set benchmarks in higher education. This FDP was yet another step towards fostering innovation in teaching and empowering educators with tools to enhance students' learning experiences.
