MENTOR MENTEE SESSION FOR BATCH 2025

Date of Event	20.08.2025
Name of the Event	Mentor mentee Session for Batch 2025
Type of the Event	Slow Learner/ Advanced Learner (2.2.1)
Conducted by	Department of Fashion Design
No. Of Participants	15

INTRODUCTION:

The School of Humanities (Department of Fashion Design), organized a Mentor-Mentee session for the students of Batch 2025 as part of its continuous student development and support initiative. The primary objective of this session was to foster a strong academic and emotional support system between faculty members and students, while also helping mentees navigate their academic journey with greater clarity and purpose.

OBJECTIVE:

- To introduce students to their assigned faculty mentors
- To promote open communication and trust
- To address academic, personal, and career-related concerns
- To provide guidance on curriculum structure, expectations, and university resources
- To build a sense of community and engagement among the batch

About the Event:

- Welcome Note: The session began with a welcome address by the Dean/Head of the School of Humanities, who emphasized the importance of mentorship in higher education and holistic development.
- Introduction of Mentors and Mentees: Faculty members briefly introduced themselves, outlining their areas of expertise and interest. Students were then invited to introduce themselves, share their expectations, and discuss their initial experiences.
- Interactive Discussion:

Topics covered included:

- Academic planning and time management
- Overview of the course curriculum and assessment methods
- Importance of interdisciplinary learning and critical thinking
- Coping with transition from school to university life
- Opportunities for internships, projects, and extracurricular involvement

- Q&A Session: Students asked questions ranging from academic pathways to career opportunities. Mentors responded with practical insights, encouraging students to make the most of the resources available.
- Feedback Collection: The session concluded with the collection of feedback to understand student expectations and areas for further mentoring support.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES):

The Mentor-Mentee session with Batch 2025 was a constructive and engaging initiative, setting the foundation for a year of meaningful interactions. The School of Humanities remains committed to providing continuous support, guidance, and mentorship to ensure student success both academically and personally.
