Type of the Event	Celebration/ Organizing national and international commemorative days, events and festivals
Conducted by	MBA Program, Department of Management
Coordinated by	Dr. Subrato Kumar Dey, Dr. Abhishek Upadhyay
No. of Participants	34

OBJECTIVES:

- To commemorate Constitution Day and promote awareness about the values, principles, and spirit of the Indian Constitution.
- To enhance students' public speaking, articulation, and critical thinking skills through a structured elocution platform.
- To encourage students to express their views confidently on topics related to democracy, constitutional rights, duties, and national values.
- To foster a sense of civic responsibility, national pride, and ethical citizenship among the MBA students.

DETAILS:

The Department of Management, MBA, ARKA JAIN University, Jharkhand, in association with the Toastmasters Club, organized an Elocution Contest to commemorate Constitution Day.

The event was conducted under the guidance of:

- Convener: Dr. Urvashi Thakur (HoD, Department of Management, MBA)
- Coordinators: Dr. Subrato Dey and Dr. Abhishek Upadhyay

Students participated by delivering speeches on themes related to the Constitution of India, its values, and its contemporary relevance. The contest aimed to create an engaging and meaningful space for participants to showcase their communication abilities and understanding of constitutional ethics.

The event included introductory remarks, elocution rounds, evaluations, and concluding acknowledgments.

TAKEAWAYS (OUTCOME)

- Students gained a deeper understanding of the Indian Constitution, its significance, and its role in shaping democratic governance.
- Participants improved their oratory, confidence, stage presence, and persuasive communication abilities.
- The event strengthened students' ability to express informed opinions on national and civic issues.
- The event fostered a strong sense of patriotism, civic awareness, and responsible citizenship among the student community.
- It enhanced student engagement in academic and co-curricular activities, contributing to their overall holistic development.

POSTER OF THE EVENT
