SESSION ON SAMVAAD

Date of Event	08th November 2025
Name of the Event	Parent Teacher Meeting
Type of the Event	Co-Curricular Event
Conducted by	Department of Commerce- B.COM(H)
Convenors of the Event	Dr. Pompi Das Sengupta & Dr. Ankita Singh
Coordinators	Ranjan Kumar
No. Of Participant	11

OBJECTIVE:

The objective of the meeting was to establish a constructive platform for communication between parents and faculty regarding students' academic progress, attendance, behavior and overall performance. It aimed to involve parents in understanding the academic framework, guiding students toward discipline and regularity, and providing clarity regarding expectations for the current semester. The meeting also sought to identify concerns, share student progress, and work collaboratively towards their academic and personal improvement.

DETAILS:

The Parent-Teacher Meeting was conducted online and began with a welcome note for the parents. The faculty members presented an overview of the semester schedule, teaching methodologies, classroom engagement and internal assessment patterns. Students such as Saniya with his mother, Aanchal with her parents, among others, actively attended the session. The faculty discussed each student's academic performance, attendance, participation in class activities and areas that require improvement. Parents appreciated that the notes distribution, academic resources and faculty support were provided regularly and on time. The session highlighted the importance of maintaining consistency in studies and encouraged students to be active learners.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES):

The meeting enabled clear communication regarding student performance, attendance and classroom engagement. Students were advised to maintain regular attendance, complete assignments on time and participate actively in academic activities. Parents assured their support in motivating students to follow a disciplined study routine. The faculty also emphasized the importance of participating in departmental activities and skill-building programs to enhance learning outcomes. The session helped in building a mutual understanding between faculty and parents for the academic progression of students.

FEEDBACK

Parents expressed satisfaction with the structured teaching methodology, timely availability of notes, and the continuous mentoring approach adopted by the faculty. They appreciated the supportive learning environment provided by the university and acknowledged that faculty engagement with students is regular and effective. The overall response from parents was positive, and they encouraged the continuation of such meetings in future to maintain strong communication and collaboration for student development.
