Students of MBA Semester I and III participated in Anand Bhoj, an initiative of Subhash Yuva Manch, Jamshedpur on 7th October 2025 at Tatanagar Railways Station. This is an important event where free, good-quality food is regularly distributed to economically disadvantaged individuals. As part of this event, students joined hands with the NSS unit of ARKA JAIN University and actively participated in serving meals to needy people at Tatanagar Railway Station.

Around 350 ready-to-eat food packets were distributed among street dwellers, rag-pickers, and other underprivileged individuals. The students took part enthusiastically, ensuring that every recipient was served with dignity and respect. The experience sensitized students to the hardships faced by the less fortunate and deepened their understanding of the importance of food as a basic human necessity.
