OBJECTIVE:

The event “YUVA 5.0” was organized for the students of the Department of Management, Arka Jain University, with the objective of inspiring youth through the teachings and life philosophy of Swami Vivekananda and promoting cultural awareness among students.

DETAILS:

A motivational and cultural session titled “YUVA 5.0” was conducted on 11th March 2026 for the students of the Department of Management. The event was graced by Shrimat Swami Ishtapremananda Ji Maharaj, who attended as the Chief Guest.

During the session, the Chief Guest delivered an insightful and inspiring lecture on the life and teachings of Swami Vivekananda. He emphasized the importance of discipline, self-confidence, and spiritual strength in shaping the youth of today. His message encouraged students to adopt values such as dedication, leadership, and service to society, highlighting how Swami Vivekananda’s ideals remain highly relevant in the modern world. The event also featured a vibrant tribal dance performance by the students of the Department of Management. The performance beautifully showcased cultural richness and added enthusiasm and energy to the program. The audience, consisting of management students, actively participated and engaged with the session, making the event interactive and impactful.

TAKEAWAYS:

The event proved to be highly enriching and motivational for the students. It helped them understand the relevance of Swami Vivekananda's teachings in their personal and professional lives. The cultural performance enhanced students' appreciation for traditional values and teamwork. Overall, the program successfully inspired students to strive for self-development and responsible leadership.
