SKILL BASED MASTER CLASS ON AI FOR EVERY STUDENT - TOOLS, SKILLS AND CAREER ADVANTAGE

Date of Event	26.02.2026
Name of the Event	Master class on AI for Every Student - tools, skills and career advantage
Type of the Event	Skill based Training
Conducted by	Centre for Capacity Building and Human Resource Development (CCHRD) and MarkHub24
Resource Person	Mr. Anurag Lala
No. of Participants	280

OBJECTIVE: The program aimed to introduce students to the practical use of Artificial Intelligence as a learning, productivity, and career-enhancement tool. It focused on building awareness about AI-driven tools that support academics, research, creativity, and professional growth. The objective was to demystify AI and present it as an accessible technology for every student, irrespective of discipline. Emphasis was laid on developing future-ready skills aligned with industry expectations. The session also intended to encourage ethical, responsible, and effective use of AI in education and work. Overall, it sought to bridge the gap between classroom learning and emerging career demands.

DETAILS: The session covered an overview of Artificial Intelligence and its growing relevance across sectors. Students were introduced to widely used AI tools for content creation, data analysis, presentations, learning support, and career planning. Practical demonstrations highlighted how AI could be integrated into daily academic tasks and skill development. The program discussed real-world applications of AI in various career paths and industries. Interactive discussions helped students understand opportunities, limitations, and ethical considerations of AI usage.

OUTCOME: Students gained a clear understanding of how AI tools could enhance learning efficiency and productivity. They developed basic skills to use AI responsibly for academics, projects, and professional preparation. The session increased awareness about AI-driven career opportunities and the importance of upskilling. Participants felt more confident in adopting AI as a supportive technology rather than a replacement. The program fostered a future-oriented mindset aligned with digital transformation. Overall, it empowered students with practical knowledge to gain a competitive career advantage.
