OBJECTIVE:

The objective of the session was to familiarize faculty members with the principles of Outcome Based Education (OBE), provide insights into the implementation of NEP 2020, and strategies to enhance quality and student-centric learning.

DETAILS:

The School of Pharmacy, ARKA JAIN University, Jharkhand organized a session on “Outcome Based Education & NEP 2020: Key Takeaways from Malaviya Training” on 09 February 2026 at Sushruta Block from 9:30 AM onwards, delivered by Dr. Nikita Nayak, Assistant Professor, School of Pharmacy, who shared key learnings from the Malaviya Training Programme with the objective of familiarizing faculty members with the principles of Outcome Based Education (OBE), understanding the implementation strategies of NEP 2020.

The session emphasized the transition from traditional knowledge-based education (IQ-focused learning) to a more holistic and competency-driven approach integrating both Intelligence Quotient (IQ) and Emotional Quotient (EQ) in teaching-learning processes. The speaker highlighted that NEP 2020 promotes not only academic excellence but also emotional intelligence, ethical values, adaptability, and life skills—ensuring well-rounded graduates. The session reinforced the importance of inclusive education that supports academic, emotional, and professional growth of all learners. The programme concluded with acknowledging the valuable insights shared and reaffirming the institution’s dedication to quality education and continuous improvement.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES):

- Enhanced understanding of OBE framework and NEP 2020 implementation.
- Increased awareness of balancing IQ (academic competence) and EQ (emotional intelligence) in teaching.
- Strengthened collaboration among faculty.
- Greater commitment to inclusive, student-centered, and outcome-driven education.
