DETAILS: The School of Nursing organized a Parent–Teacher Meeting (PTM) for the 4th Semester B.Sc. Nursing students (Batch 2023–2027) Academic session 2025-2026 on 22/1/2026. The meeting was conducted in virtual mode, enabling parents to participate both offline on campus and online through to ensure maximum involvement and convenience. Parents were informed well in advance about the meeting through the WhatsApp by the mentors. All the parents have attended the meeting via Zoom, with provisions made for those joining through phone conferencing. Each parent was allotted 15 minutes to interact with the mentors and discuss students’ academic and clinical progress. During the meeting, mentors presented an overview of the students’ academic performance, attendance records, clinical competencies, and participation in curricular and co-curricular activities. Parents shared valuable feedback and suggestions for the continuous improvement of teaching-learning activities and student support. The discussion also covered clinical postings, and the need for maintaining punctuality, discipline, and consistent communication between parents and mentors. The meeting concluded with remarks from mentors expressing sincere gratitude to all parents for their active participation and cooperation

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES):

The Parent–Teacher Meeting effectively facilitated discussion on students’ academic progress, behaviour, and overall development, helping parents understand their child’s strengths and areas for improvement while strengthening collaboration to support academic performance, discipline, and personal growth.
