LAMP LIGHTING CUM OATH TAKING CEREMONY

Date of Event	20.02.2026
Name of the Event	Lamp lighting cum oath taking ceremony
Type of the Event	Code of Conduct
Conducted by	School of Nursing, ARKA JAIN University
No. Of Participants	53

OBJECTIVE:

The Lamp Lighting and Oath Taking Ceremony is a solemn and meaningful occasion in the nursing profession. It declares students' formal entry into nursing, blending ritual with resolve to serve humanity amid challenges. This ceremony signifies the transition from theoretical learning to practical training and patient care, shaping students into responsible future nurses.

DETAILS: The School of Nursing, ARKA JAIN University organized the 4th Lamp Lighting cum Oath Taking Ceremony on 20th February 2026. The ceremony was held at the JEH Auditorium, Block Aryabhatta, and commenced at 11:00 AM. The program began with a welcome dance performed by the 5th Semester B.Sc. Nursing student. This was followed by a welcome address delivered by Prof. Ginu Anie Joseph, Principal of the School of Nursing, Arka Jain University, who warmly welcomed the dignitaries and presented them with saplings as a token of respect. The dignitaries then proceeded with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp. As a mark of honor and reverence, they offered floral tributes to the portrait of Florence Nightingale. Mrs. G Anuradha, Nursing Superintendent of Tata Main Hospital, Tinplate, Jamshedpur, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. Dr. (Prof.) S. S. Razi, Chairperson of the Board of Management, delivered an address highlighting the invaluable services rendered by nurses to society. In her speech, the Guest of Honour, Mrs. G Anuradha emphasized the crucial role of nurses in hospital settings and the compassionate care they provide to patients. Later, in her address as the Chief Guest, she encouraged the students to work diligently to complete their course successfully and to begin their professional careers with sincerity, dedication, and punctuality. The dignitaries were felicitated with mementos as a token of appreciation. Ms. Priti Kumari, Nursing Tutor, then explained the significance of the Lamp Lighting and Oath Taking Ceremony, underscoring its importance in symbolizing the commitment, compassion, and responsibility of nursing professionals. Mrs. G Anuradha, Prof. Ginu Anie Joseph, and Prof. Shilpa J and Mrs. Priyanka Tudu ceremonially lit the lamps for 53 novice nursing students, symbolically passing on the light of wisdom and compassion. The students solemnly pledged to uphold their professional duties by taking the oath administered by Mrs. G Anuradha.

The event also featured a cultural program and skit presented by the 3rd Semester students. The ceremony concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Ms. Priti Kumari, Nursing Tutor, School of Nursing, followed by the National Anthem, marking the successful culmination of the program. The gathering witnessed the ceremony, and the program concluded with the National Anthem.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES):

The lamp lighting ceremony holds profound significance in nursing, symbolizing the timeless legacy of Florence Nightingale. Lighting this lamp marks their pledge to a noble path where selflessness shines brightest. The lamp in their hands flickers with promise, a quiet yet powerful symbol as they stand on the threshold of their nursing journey. The oath taken by young Student Nurses which signifies that they are ready to discharge their duties with complete honesty, integrity and without any discrimination.
