QUIZ COMPETITION ON INTRODUCTION TO FORENSIC NURSING AND INDIAN LAWS

Date of Event	25.02.2026
Name of the Event	Quiz Competition on Introduction to Forensic Nursing and Indian Laws
Type of the Event	Quiz Competition
Conducted by	B.Sc. Nursing Fifth Semester, School of Nursing, ARKA JAIN University
No. of Participants	17

OBJECTIVE:

To enhance knowledge and promote academic excellence in Forensic Nursing by conducting a Quiz Competition that encourages active participation, critical thinking, and application of medico-legal concepts among nursing students, thereby strengthening their understanding of forensic principles, improving analytical skills, and fostering professional competence in handling legal and ethical issues in clinical practice.

DETAILS: The School of Nursing, ARKA JAIN University, organized a “Forensic Nursing Quiz Competition – The Crime & Care Championship 2026” in Block A, Aryabhata, Room No. 131, from 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM on 25.02.2026. The programme was coordinated by Prof. Shilpa J., Vice Principal and Course In-charge of the subject Introduction to Forensic Nursing and Indian Laws. The quiz was conducted in an interactive format covering various aspects of forensic nursing, including legal procedures, evidence preservation, ethical responsibilities, and the role of nurses in medico-legal cases. Students actively participated with great enthusiasm, demonstrating sound subject knowledge and analytical skills. The competition created a healthy academic environment that promoted teamwork, confidence, and knowledge sharing among peers. Winners were announced at the end of the competition and were appreciated for their excellent performance. The success of the Quiz Competition reflects the visionary leadership of our Principal, Prof. (Mrs.) Ginu Anie Joseph, and the continuous support of our Honourable Chairman, Prof. Dr. S. S. Razi, thereby strengthening academic excellence and fostering a culture of participative and experiential learning within the institution.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES): The session proved to be a valuable learning experience, as it facilitated reinforcement of theoretical concepts through an engaging and participatory approach.
