OBJECTIVE:

The Department of Research organized a Virtual Expert Talk session on Designing Questionnaire for Research with the aim that Research Scholars understand the importance of preparing a balanced and bias free questionnaire.

DETAILS:

On 22nd January, 2026 the Department of Research took the initiative to help out their Research Scholars with a virtual session on Designing Questionnaire for Research. The resource person for the session was Dr. Hemalatha Ramakrishnan, Professor-Finance at Christ (Deemed to be University), Bengaluru.

The session was designed in such a manner that all the participants understood the basics of research methodology, the types of questions, scaling techniques and framing of relevant questionnaire for collecting primary data.

The event convenor for the session was Prof. (Dr.) Sonia Riyat, Head-Department of Research and the event co-ordinator was Dr. Chanchal Mandal, Member-Department of Research.

All researchers took active interest and participated in the session and few of them asked questions which were aptly answered.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES):

The session was arranged at the right moment because many researchers got to know the importance of a balanced and tested questionnaire to collect relevant data for analysis.
