POSTER MAKING COMPETITION ON THE OCCASION OF ANTI- RAGGING WEEK

Date of Event	18.08.2025
Name of the Event	Poster Making Competition on the Occasion of Anti-Raging Week
Type of the Event	Competitive Event
Conducted by	School of Law, Arka Jain University
Event Coordinator	Mr. Anshu Kumar
No. of Participants	13

OBJECTIVE:

The objective of organizing the Poster Making Competition on the occasion of Anti-Ragging Week is to create awareness among the BBA LL.B. students regarding the detrimental effects of ragging and to promote a culture of mutual respect, dignity, and inclusiveness within the campus. The competition seeks to encourage students to convey the message of anti-ragging through creative and impactful visual expression, thereby reinforcing the University's commitment to maintaining a safe and harmonious academic environment.

DETAILS:

The School of Law at ARKA JAIN University organized a Poster Making Competition as part of the Anti- Raging Week from 12th to 18th August 2025 on 18th August 2025. The event was held at Room no.534,E block , Nagarjuna Building , School of Law, and witnessed enthusiastic participation from 13 students representing various semesters.

The competition was designed with the objective of sensitizing students to the harmful effects of ragging and to encourage them to creatively express their ideas in promoting a culture of respect, safety, and inclusiveness on campus.

The themes of the posters focused on:

- Awareness about the consequences of ragging.
- Promotion of dignity and mutual respect among students.
- Creating a safe and inclusive campus environment.
- Legal provisions and punishments related to ragging.

Students prepared thought-provoking and impactful posters using both traditional and innovative approaches, effectively highlighting the values of empathy, equality, and anti-ragging awareness. The activity encouraged creativity, critical thinking, and advocacy through art, thereby reinforcing the significance of responsible conduct in student life.

The programme also included short reflections on the relevance of Anti-Ragging Week, emphasizing the responsibility of every student to uphold the University's commitment towards maintaining a ragging-free campus.

The event was graced by all faculty members of the School of Law, with Programme Coordinator Dr. Archita Das, and Dean, Prof. (Dr.) Praveen Kumar Thakur, appreciating the participants for their active involvement. They encouraged students to uphold the values of respect, inclusivity, and legal awareness in their academic journey and beyond.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOME):

The Poster Making Competition successfully achieved its objective of spreading awareness on the issue of ragging and its negative impact on student life. The creative expressions of the participants reflected a strong understanding of the importance of dignity, inclusivity, and respect within the campus. The event encouraged students to use art as a medium of social awareness, enhanced their knowledge of legal and institutional measures against ragging, and fostered a sense of responsibility towards maintaining a safe and harmonious environment. Overall, the competition not only highlighted the collective resolve of students against ragging but also strengthened the University's commitment to nurturing a positive academic culture.
