SESSION ON CURB OF MENACE OF RAGGING

Date of Event	22.08.2025
Name of the Event	Session on Curb of Menace Of Ragging
Type of the Event	Competitive Event
Conducted by	School of Law, Arka Jain University
Event Coordinator	Mr. Anshu Kumar
No. of Participants	27

OBJECTIVE:

The session on “Curb of Menace of Ragging” under the Induction and Orientation Programme – Aarambh 2025 aims to create awareness among the newly admitted BBA LL.B. and LL.B. students about the legal, ethical, and institutional measures against ragging. The objective is to sensitize students to the harmful consequences of ragging, foster a safe and respectful academic environment, and encourage mutual trust and camaraderie. Through this session, students will be informed about their rights, responsibilities, and the university’s strict anti-ragging policies, thereby ensuring a culture of inclusivity, discipline, and dignity within the campus.

DETAILS:

The School of Law at ARKA JAIN University organized a special session on “Curbing the Menace of Ragging” as a part of the Induction and Orientation Programme – Aarambh 2025 for the newly admitted BBA LL.B. and LL.B. students. The session was conducted on [insert date] at Room No. 534, E Block, Nagarjuna Building, School of Law.

The programme aimed to sensitize the freshers about the harmful consequences of ragging and to emphasize the significance of creating a safe, respectful, and inclusive academic environment. The session covered:

- Legal provisions under the Anti-Ragging Laws and UGC Regulations.
- Disciplinary measures and institutional mechanisms to prevent ragging.
- Rights and responsibilities of students in ensuring a ragging-free campus.
- Psychological and social impact of ragging on victims.

- Role of peer support, faculty, and administration in maintaining harmony.

The resource persons highlighted real-life instances and discussed preventive strategies, encouraging students to foster values of empathy, dignity, and mutual respect. Students actively interacted during the session, raising questions and sharing perspectives, which created an open and engaging learning atmosphere.

The programme also reinforced the University's Zero Tolerance Policy towards ragging, reminding students of their collective responsibility in upholding constitutional values and ethical standards in campus life.

The session was graced by all faculty members of the School of Law. Programme Coordinator Dr. Archita Mishra and Dean, School of Law, Prof. (Dr.) Praveen Kumar Thakur addressed the gathering, motivated the students, and reiterated the University's commitment to ensuring a secure and conducive learning environment.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOME):

The session on "Curbing the Menace of Ragging" under the Induction and Orientation Programme – Aarambh 2025 successfully created awareness among the newly admitted BBA LL.B. and LL.B. students about the legal, social, and psychological implications of ragging. Students gained clarity on the University's Zero Tolerance Policy towards ragging, the institutional redressal mechanisms available, and their own responsibilities in fostering a safe and inclusive campus environment.

The interactive discussions encouraged active student participation, which reflected their understanding and acceptance of the importance of mutual respect and dignity in campus life. The session also instilled confidence among the freshers that the University prioritizes their safety and well-being, thereby promoting a culture of trust, discipline, and positive peer interaction.
