Name of the Event	AIDS Awareness Program
Type of the Event	Extension Activity
Conducted by	Department of BBA in association with NSS
Co-ordinated by	Ujwal Prakash, Dr. Nikita Shukla & Atul Pathak
NSS Co-ordinator	Dr. Rajeev Sinha
No. of Participant	30

An AIDS Awareness Programme was organized in collaboration with NSS by the Department of BBA, Arka Jain University. The initiative aimed to spread awareness about HIV/AIDS prevention, myths, and social responsibility. As part of the programme, students and teachers actively participated in a rally conducted at Lal Building, Gamharia, carrying placards and raising slogans to educate the public. The march highlighted the importance of safe practices, early testing, and eliminating stigma associated with HIV/AIDS. The event successfully promoted community awareness, social sensitivity, and collective responsibility towards building a healthier and more informed society.

OBJECTIVE:

- To create awareness about HIV/AIDS, its causes, prevention, and treatment.
- To eliminate myths, misconceptions, and stigma associated with HIV/AIDS.
- To promote safe and healthy practices among students and the community.
- To encourage early testing and medical consultation for prevention and control.
- To foster social responsibility and community engagement through awareness activities.

OUTCOME:

- Increased Awareness and Knowledge: Students and community members gained accurate information about HIV/AIDS transmission, prevention methods, and available treatments, reducing misinformation.
- Reduction in Stigma and Misconceptions: The programme helped in addressing social taboos and myths associated with HIV/AIDS, promoting a more empathetic and informed attitude towards affected individuals.
- Promotion of Preventive Health Practices: Participants became more aware of safe practices and the importance of regular health check-ups and early testing.
- Enhanced Community Engagement: The rally encouraged active participation from students and faculty, strengthening their connection with the community and promoting social outreach.
- Development of Social Responsibility: Students developed a sense of responsibility towards public health issues and were motivated to contribute to awareness initiatives in the future.
