A PLenary DISCUSSION ON ONE NATION ONE ELECTION

Date of Event	24.04.2025
Name of the Event	A Plenary Discussion on ONE NATION ONE ELECTION
Type of the Event	Skill Development
Conducted by	School of Pharmacy in association with CCHRD, AJU
No. Of Participants	81

OBJECTIVE: The objective of conducting such an awareness program is to educate students about the concept, benefits and challenges of One Nation One Election promoting critical thinking and civic responsibility. It aims to bridge the gap between academic knowledge and current affairs through interactive learning.

DETAILS: The School of Pharmacy at ARKA JAIN University, in association with the CCHRD of AJU organized A Plenary Discussion on the thought-provoking topic "One Nation One Election" on 24th April 2025 from 10:00 AM onwards at Block B, Sushruta. The event was honoured by the gracious presence of eminent dignitaries of ARKA JAIN University: Dr. S.S. Razi, Chairperson, Board of Management, Dr. Amit Shrivastava, Director cum Registrar, Dr. Angad Tiwari, Dean Student Welfare, Dr. Jasbir Singh Dhanjal, Joint Registrar and Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo, Dean, School of Health and Allied Sciences. The discussion featured an esteemed panel of speakers including Uday Singh Dev, Rakesh Mishra, Kavita Das, Niru Singh, Ritika Mukhi, Manoranjan Nandi and Sunita Mishra. The session commenced with a warm welcome ceremony where the dignitaries honoured the speakers with flower pots and shawls as a token of appreciation. Following the felicitation, each speaker presented their perspectives and concerns on the topic of One Nation One Election. They discussed various aspects including the benefits, challenges and constitutional implications associated with simultaneous elections across the country. An engaging interactive session was conducted after the speaker presentations where students actively participated by posing thoughtful questions and sharing their views. The exchange of ideas between students and speakers made the session lively, highly informative and successful in raising awareness among the attendees regarding the topic. The session was skillfully anchored by Ms. Sristi Shreya, a B.Pharm 8th semester student who maintained the flow of the event with grace and enthusiasm. The plenary discussion was efficiently coordinated by Mr. Sumanta Sen, Mr. Alok Moharana, Mr. Vikas Das, Mr. Pravas Ranjan Dash and Ms. Purnima Mahato, under the vigilant support and guidance of Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo, Dean, School of Health and Allied Sciences.

The event concluded on a positive note, leaving the audience more informed and thoughtful about the implications of implementing One Nation One Election in the Indian democratic framework.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES): The event gained a deeper understanding of the One Nation One Election concept, its implications and its relevance to India's democratic system. It successfully sparked critical thinking, encouraged active participation and enhanced student's awareness of national political reforms, making them more informed and responsible citizens.
