SAMWAAD -PARENTS -TEACHER MEETING

Date of Event	30.04.2026
Name of the Event	SAMWAAD -Parents-Teachers Meeting
Type of the Event	Parents-Teachers Meeting
Conducted by	School of Nursing, ARKA JAIN University
No. of Participants	22

OBJECTIVE:

The meeting helps parents and students understand the academic structure and expectations of the institution, including rules and regulations, examination guidelines, attendance requirements, and internal assessment criteria.

DETAILS:

School of Nursing, ARKA JAIN University conducted a SAMWAAD Parents–Teachers Meeting (PTM) on 30th April 2026 for the B.Sc. Nursing 5th Semester students, Batch-2023-2027. The meeting was organized through Hybrid mode. During the session, each parent interacted with the respective mentor for approximately 15 minutes, wherein the student’s academic performance, attendance, first sessional results, and overall development were discussed. The interaction also helped in identifying areas requiring improvement and in setting appropriate goals for the students’ progress. The PTM strengthened collaboration between parents and teachers, thereby contributing to better academic outcomes and holistic development of students. The Parents–Teachers Meeting was highly effective in enhancing communication and collaboration between parents and teachers. It played a crucial role in supporting students’ academic progress and overall development, thereby contributing to their success. Parents appreciated the teaching methodologies and extracurricular activities offered by the university. Their feedback contributed to strengthening the educational process. This event was conducted under the guidance of Prof Mrs Ginu Anie Joseph, Principal, and School of Nursing.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES):

The Parent–Teacher Meeting resulted in improved communication and collaboration between parents and teachers, enabling a better understanding of students’ academic performance, behavior, and overall development.
